Inflation Gnaws Savings Bonds

The government is not, as some believe, intentionally keeping savings bond rates low to keep inflation alive.

When demand exceeds supply in any market, prices will rise. Savings bond rates have been kept artificially low for longer than the government has acknowledged.

The government cannot say it wants the savings bond program to lose money. The government is not a loss leader.

The government is not, as some believe, intentionally keeping savings bond rates low to keep inflation alive. The government can only keep rates low for as long as it keeps bonds in the marketplace. The government cannot say it wants the savings bond program to lose money. The government is not a loss leader.

Cultural 'Dividends'

American business is bearing with great dignity the burden of maintaining the cultural heritage of the nation.

The most important of these dividends is that the cultural heritage is being maintained and the cultural debt is being incurred.

The way in which the cultural heritage is being maintained is that the cultural debt is being incurred.

Millions of Americans Waging War—Against Fat!

In the vein of the nutritional advice column, "The Dieting Game—Chapter 1," the text appears to be discussing the ongoing battle against fat among Americans, perhaps through a game-like approach to encourage healthy eating habits. The text is likely part of a series, focusing on the importance of diet and health, possibly for a newspaper or magazine audience.

Greatest Show on Ice!

The advertisement for the show "Greatest Show on Ice!" features a colorful display of various food items, including Cane Sugar, Fresh Eggs, T.V. Dinners, and Fresh Bread, with prices listed next to each item. The layout is designed to attract attention to the variety of products available, possibly for a discount or special offer.

City Schoolgirls Go Up On Tippy-Toes

The article about gymnastics and schoolgirls going up on tippy-toes is likely part of a feature on physical education or athletic programs in schools. It may discuss the benefits of gymnastics, the development of young athletes, or the challenges of practicing such demanding skills.

Sex Education Parley Slated

The section on sex education parley slanted is probably part of a discussion or debate on the integration of sex education in schools, addressing the need for comprehensive and age-appropriate content to promote informed decision-making among students.

Top Value Stamps

Who gives FREE gifts for Top Value Stamps?

Top Value? Nope.

It's really the people you trade with.

(Their way of saying “thanks” for your business.)

Every time you go to your supermarket, drug store, service station or other merchant, those people actually make a deposit into your gift savings account: Top Value Stamps for your Top Value Savings Book.

And when you use your savings for a gift at a Top Value Redemption Center, you take your pick of over 6,000 gifts. Each of them carries Top Value's Exclusive 2-Way Golden Guarantee: Value and satisfaction guaranteed.

Why not check the balance in your Top Value savings account? Chances are you have enough right now to get a gift from one of the places you trade... through your Top Value Redemption Center. (If not, you ought to visit those fine merchants more often... perhaps your next shopping trip!)

Get Top Value Stamps at HUMPTY DUMPETY and other leading merchants.
