WASHINGTON—Dr. Fortas was no minister in the recent events that have distressed his profession and captivated the

"It's just as if an automobile hit me and stripped off the coat," he said later Tuesday. "I wouldn't have thought the devils were in it. I'm not sure who brought them in, but it's not my fault. It's the guy who owns the car."

"You probably heard about the forrest fire that kept the people of West Virginia out of their homes."

"The constitutional foundation was based on some real- ly big events."

"I was in the lab when I heard that."

"The Fortas family has always been in the neighborhood of crime,

State Due More Rain

"If you think it's going to rain this afternoon, you're wrong."

As Oklahoma City's summer rain continues to ease, the question on everyone's mind is whether or not the state will receive more than the normal amount of rainfall.

"The state should expect to receive more rain in the near future."

Schools

The enrollment projections for the Oklahoma City Public Schools for the 1966-67 school year have been released. The projections indicate that the enrollment is expected to increase by approximately 1,500 students. The district is preparing for the increase by hiring additional teachers and expanding facilities.

Tornado

The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) has issued a tornado watch for the Oklahoma City area. The watch is in effect until 9:00 PM. Residents are urged to stay alert and seek shelter if a tornado warning is issued.
