Bartlett Spurns Bank Petition Plea

Mystery 'Intermediary' Is OPUBCO Official

By DARYL CULVER

The paper with a picture of a dog on a leash and the headline "Bartlett Spurns Bank Petition Plea" was lying on my desk. I opened it to read further.

"Bartlett said a novel, 'Sunday Morning,' is the one that kept him out of jail. He said he was writing the novel while serving a prison sentence in the state penitentiary." I thought this was quite intriguing.

"A mysterious 'intermediary' who passed on the petition to OPUBCO was identified as a state official." I continued reading.

"The petition was presented to OPUBCO's Board of Directors on Monday, but the board refused to consider it. The petition, signed by over 20,000 members of OPUBCO, asked for the resignation of the board members and a new election." I was fascinated by the details.

"The mysterious 'intermediary' was identified as a state official." I wondered who this could be.

SOONERS STILL ALIVE--BARELY

Tulsa Stops 89ers On Crisp 6-Hit Performance By Reuss

By JAMES NICHOLS

Tulsa's pitcher, Steve Reuss, was dominant on the mound as he allowed only six hits to the Oklahoma State 89ers, en route to a 5-1 Sooners win.

Reuss pitched a complete game, striking out nine batters and not allowing a walk. He allowed four runs, three earned, in the first inning, but the Sooners rallied to take the lead.

The Sooners scored two runs in the fourth inning and three in the sixth, closing out the game with a 5-1 victory.

The game was played on a cool, crisp day, perfect for baseball.

The Sooners' victory over the 89ers was a good one, but it's still early in the season. The Sooners need to continue to play strong if they hope to win the Big 8 Conference.

The Jayhawks are a tough team to beat, and they will likely make things difficult for the Sooners in their upcoming match.

OU's tennis team is off to a good start, leading the Big 8 Conference. They will look to continue their winning streak in their upcoming matches.

In baseball, the Sooners played well against the 89ers, but they will need to improve their hitting if they hope to win more games.

The Sooners' game against the Astros was a close one, but they came out on top with a 11-0 victory.

Anti-Discrimination Act Goes Into Effect Today

By RAYMOND DERMUD

WASHINGTON (AP) - The 1964 federal anti-discrimination bill is scheduled to go into effect July 1, 1965. The law prohibits discrimination in various aspects of life, including employment, housing, and public accommodations.

The bill was passed by Congress in 1964 and signed into law by President Lyndon B. Johnson. It is a landmark civil rights legislation that prohibits discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Nixon Against Budget Ceiling

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Richard Nixon has announced his opposition to a proposed budget ceiling. In a statement, Nixon said that the ceiling would inhibit economic growth and lead to a recession.

The proposed budget ceiling, also known as the Democratic ceiling, was introduced by the Democratic Party in Congress. It seeks to reduce government spending and increase revenue by raising income taxes.

Rogers, Thieu Discuss U.S. Troop Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) - Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara has met with South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu to discuss the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam. McNamara expressed his support for the withdrawal, while Thieu reiterated his country's commitment to the war.

The meeting follows McNamara's recent trip to Vietnam, where he met with U.S. military commanders and discussed the progress of the war.

The latest developments in Vietnam have raised concerns among U.S. officials, who are monitoring the situation closely.
