REALTOR WEEK

MAY 23-31, 1969
HOME OWNERSHIP FOUNDATION OF THE NATION

UNDER ALL THE LAND

Under the French government's proposals, a new land law is to be enacted. Andrew Carnegie once said that land is the source of all wealth and that no state is more in debt to the farmer than a farmer.

The REALTOR'S PLEDGE

This is the pledge that every REALTOR makes to his fellow REALTOR:

1. To act with integrity, fairness and honesty in all transactions involving the sale, purchase, exchange or rental of real estate.
2. To strive to the best of his ability to serve the public, to promote the public welfare and to further the interests of his profession.
3. To conduct his business in such a manner as to reflect credit upon his profession and its members.
4. To hold in strictest confidence all information obtained in the course of his business relations.
5. To keep himself informed of developments in his profession and to strive to keep his knowledge current.
6. To respect the rights of others and to refrain from false statements or misrepresentations.
7. To maintain high standards of personal conduct.
8. To observe the rules and regulations of the National Association of REALTORS.
