Really Now!
How does one unexpectedly
Come up with $86,221 worth of surplus furniture?

Good question. We've asked ourselves that same question hundreds of times during the last three weeks. We've come up with lots of reasons, on account of, and so on, but none that are satisfactory or logical answers. Answers we really don't need—it's solutions that are needed now. Our closely scrutinized and controlled inventory isn't so perfectly controlled, it seems. In fact this $6,000-thousand dollars or so is just that much too much. In other words our inventory cup runneth over, and runneth over it will until the desired level is reached. This is where you, our customer, really reap the true benefit, because Saturday and Sunday we are going to have some of the wackiest, nuttiest, prices we've ever offered under our roof. We don't want to appear "snobbish," but in all fairness, it should be pointed out that the only merchandise we carry, are such fine & time tested names as Thomasville, Drexel, Kroehler, Simmons, and Frigidaire, just to name a few. To give you a bird's eye view on a couple of these items, and remember there are hundreds more, what your furniture appetite on this—A line, classic, Italian mannered, Drexel sofa, soft white color, Regular $599.95, Now $355. Or a Thomasville bedroom suite, Regular $599.95, Now $295. Or take for instance this queen size, Simmons Top-of-the-line mattress and box springs (this happens to be a floor sample) Regular $399.95, Now $187. We could go on with hundreds and hundreds of more items, but the space doesn't permit it, and don't YOU permit anything to keep you from this utterly ridiculous affair.
