Hospital's Future On Line

By CODY PRICE
The College Hospital board is concerned that the Oklahoma Health Center may close down all or part of the University of Oklahoma hospital.

If the College Hospital closes, it may mean that some of the University's medical programs will be cut.

The college has been asked to present a proposal to the board by the end of the year.

The college has the option of closing the hospital, or of trying to save it.

Two Drown Near Tulsa

Two teenagers were found dead in the Arkansas River in the Tulsa area.

The teenagers were identified as John Smith and Jane Doe.

Braves Beat Cubs Finally

The Atlanta Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs in a thrilling game yesterday, winning 5-4 in the 10th inning. The game, which was filled with dramatic moments, saw the Braves overcome a late rally by the Cubs to secure their fourth consecutive victory.

Yanks, A's Win Games in Overtime

The New York Yankees and the Oakland Athletics both won their respective games in exciting overtime battles. The Yanks defeated the Boston Red Sox in a hard-fought game, while the A's managed to edge past the Los Angeles Angels to maintain their lead in the American League West.

TIME-D-C Deals M&R First Loss

The TIME-D-C Racing team secured its first victory in the M&R series last week, defeating the long-standing favorites. The victory was particularly notable as it marked the first time in several years that the TIME-D-C team had triumphed over the M&R in a head-to-head match.

Roger Eyes Dallas Job

Roger Moore, known for his role in the James Bond films, has expressed interest in taking on a new challenge by accepting the position of Dallas mayor. Moore, who has been actively involved in various public service roles, has cited his desire to contribute to the city's growth and development as his motivation for considering the role.

Four Fish Meets Set At Madill

The Four Fish Racing team announced its plans to participate in the upcoming Madill races. This is the team's second major event of the season, following their successful showing in the recent national championships.

Nix To Run In Springnationals

Randy Johnson, a former professional baseball player, has decided not to participate in the upcoming Springnationals, citing personal reasons. Johnson, who is well-known for his strong performance in past events, had been expected to make a significant impact this year.

White Rats In Laboratory May Become Thing Of Past

Separating Living, Dead Cells Goal Of OSU Team

Dr. Donald Cutler and his associates at Oregon State University have been working on a technique to separate living and dead cells. This technique could have significant implications for various fields, including medicine and biotechnology.

The procedure involves the use of a special apparatus that can selectively remove dead cells while preserving the viability of living ones. This is achieved through a combination of mechanical and chemical methods.

Meat Prices High Everywhere

The recent rise in meat prices has been attributed to various factors, including increased demand and supply chain disruptions. Consumers are advised to budget accordingly and consider alternative protein sources.
