Mitchell's Plan Would Abolish U.S. Voting Watchdogs in South

Clifford Asks To Replace Act Of 1965

By Paul Case

The 20 ladies of the Oklahoma State Board of Elections have been requested not to hold any more meetings in Oklahoma City until the state legislature is adjourned. The board, which is composed of five ladies from each of the 15 counties in the state, was organized in 1921 to supervise the election of officers and to assist the county clerks in conducting elections. The board has a budget of $15,000 and is financed by a levy of $1.50 per thousand on the county's election funds.

Anti-Strike Bill Dropped By Wilson

By Paul Case

The bill to prevent strikes in the state has been dropped by Governor Wilson. He said that the president of the United Mine Workers' Union had assured him that the union would not strike unless the state legislature passed a law prohibiting strikes.

A Bad Day For Girls (Watching)

By Paul Case

Girls who watch football games in the stadium will now be allowed to smoke cigarettes. This is the first time that girls have been allowed to smoke in a public place in Oklahoma City.

Vaccine May Stem Meningitis

By Paul Case

The vaccine against meningitis may be a valuable tool in the battle against the disease. It is estimated that the vaccine is 90% effective in preventing the disease. The vaccine is now being administered to children under the age of five.

Family Urges Con: Give Up

2 Women, Child In Hiding Here

By Paul Case

The Oklahoma City family has been in hiding for some time now. The family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their two children, have been living in a deserted house in the woods. The family has been living in the house for over a year, and has been invisible to the authorities.

Law Sought To Replace Act Of 1965

The Tennessee

Abolishment of the enforcement of the state's new anti-defense voting law has been proposed by Attorney General John G. Mitchell. Mitchell said that the law was enacted to prevent the spreading of the disease among the voting entities.

Want a Job? Here's Where

By the same token, President Kennedy's speech about the importance of the poor is relevant to everyone who wants to find a job. The President has pointed out that the poor are a large group of people who are often overlooked in the job market. It is important for everyone to take seriously the President's reminders about the importance of the poor.

Sewer Project Close to Street

North Central has been able to complete the sewer project in recent weeks. The project has improved the quality of life for residents in the area and has reduced the risk of flooding. The project was funded by the city and has been completed over the deadline.

City's Auction Called Success

The annual city auction was a success. The city has been able to make some needed improvements and has been able to raise money for further projects. The auction was well attended and was able to raise a large amount of money.

Workers Vote on Union

The workers of North Central City have voted on forming a union. The vote was a close one, but the workers have decided to form a union. This is a positive step forward for the workers and will likely improve their working conditions.

Third Carney Bank Robbery

Suspect Held

A suspect has been arrested in Anna June Menges, 12, of 1104 E. University, holds a sign designed to show her support of her fellow students who are working to improve their foreign language skills. The sign was made during a recent project in Menges' Spanish class. The project was part of an experiment to determine whether students would be more motivated to improve their foreign language skills if they were rewarded for their efforts. The experiment was conducted in Menges' Spanish class, and the results showed that students were more motivated to improve their foreign language skills when they were rewarded for their efforts. The experiment

Southwest's Casts Filled

Full casts of the latest Broadway musical "The Munsters" are filled in preparation for their upcoming performance. The actors have been rehearsing for months and are excited to finally bring the show to the stage. The costumes, designed by renowned fashion designer, are色彩斑斓, capturing the essence of the 1950s sitcom.

Jobless Rate Triple For Older Teens

Many Youths In Rut: No Skill—And No Job

In a report from the Department of Labor, it was found that the unemployment rate for teenagers who lack skills and do not have jobs is significantly higher than for those with more education and experience. The government is working on initiatives to help these youths find employment opportunities.

1959 Putnam City Grads To Gather

The Putnam City High School Class of 1959 will reunite for a special gathering to celebrate their 60th anniversary. Many of the graduates have been estranged for years but are now eager to reconnect and reminisce about their shared experiences.

Back To Good Ol' Days

The 1950s were a time of innovation and change. People wore clothes made of wool and cotton, and cars were powered by gas. But with the advent of the internet, people have lost touch with the past. Now, with the help of social media, people are able to reconnect with their heritage and embrace the simplicity of the past.
