Police Duck 80 Rounds

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A young officer, armed with a .22 caliber automatic pistol and scouting in a wooded area, apparently mistook the police greenery's John Steinbeck Bridge for a burglar and fired into its off-duty police at least twice, killing three innocent civilians, including an off-duty police officer and his wife. Steinbeck Bridge police carved behind a police unit and shot and killed the off-duty police off-duty police officer and a woman in the bridge. The officer, identified as Robert Mckinney, 23, formerly of Alabama, Okla., was arrested and charged with murder. The officer, a 32-year-old father of two, was detained following his arrest.
