Schools To Open Sept. 2
Board Asks Quick Appeals Decision

By JANE EAGLE

The Oklahoma City Board of Education said it is convenient to open the school year on the scheduled date, regardless of whether court suit is required to get a court order forcing the school to open.

The board met Thursday evening to discuss whether to open school on Sept. 2, as scheduled, or to delay the opening by 10 days.

The board heard arguments from two attorneys representing parents and students who are challenging the board's decision to open school.

The attorneys argued that the board's decision to open school on Sept. 2 is unconstitutional, and that the board should delay the opening by 10 days.

The board voted 5-1 to open school on Sept. 2, with one member abstaining.

The board's decision to open school on Sept. 2 is final, and the board will not issue a statement after the meeting.
