Strikers Walk Picket Lines Today

By LUCIA CLAY

Wednesday will be "family day" for striking sand makers, who were joined Tuesday night in picking the two sawmill workers from 6 to 8 a.m.

Workers attended two meetings Tuesday night.
The first at the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce, 200 N. W. 23rd, where picketing strategy was discussed. Later at Snider's Saldanha Restaurant, 2005 N. Main, where the picket leaders met.

The group consists of about 80 members of the Progressive Civic Club. The spirit of Martin Luther King was said by one speaker. "We can't back down. We must win their strike and our own." Two other ambassadors from the Progressive Civic Club were present.

"A lot of people said violence has been the best but they didn't prove anything yet," one speaker said.
The "strenuous" was discussed. "We must have courage and be strong."

At 6 a.m., the picketing begins with a song and speeches.

City police keep vigil

As meetings opened Tuesday night over an expected strike, the Air Force News was reporting from a national strike.

The Oklahoma City Police and Fire Department were on alert Tuesday night.

"We must be prepared to go as soon as the strike is declared," a policeman said.

"We have a lot of work to do,
" he said.

The City Commission declared that the strike would be declared on Saturday night.
