Judge Delays Probe
On Kennedy Request

BOSTON (UPI) - A Massachusetts Superior Court judge has delayed the start of an investigation into the killing of President John F. Kennedy.

The investigation was ordered by Kennedy in a February 8, 1963, letter to Governor John F. Collins.

The judge, John F. Collins, has requested additional staff and equipment for the investigation.

The delay is expected to last for several weeks, and the investigation is expected to continue for several months.

Kennedy requested the investigation after a series of assassination attempts on him.

Kennedy was assassinated
in Dallas on November 22, 1963.

The investigation is expected to focus on the circumstances surrounding the assassination.

Kennedy's request for the investigation was made in a letter to Business Week on February 8, 1963.

Kennedy's letter stated that he had requested the investigation in order to prevent a repetition of the assassination.

The investigation is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Kennedy's death has been a source of controversy for decades, with many theories surrounding the circumstances surrounding the assassination.

Kennedy's family has long been associated with the assassination, with many theories suggesting a connection between the family and those involved in the assassination.

The First Day Of School

Play Groups, Nurseries Help Prepare Tot For School

ROBERT MOELL - Following is the fourth quarter in a series on preparing tots for school. Our advice: Don't delay. Don't procrastinate. Don't let the process become something you'll regret.

Two years ago I was still in school and just getting into the routine of things. I was so excited about the new school year, I decided to start my own daycare center. I had always wanted to be a teacher, but I knew I couldn't handle the stress of being a full-time student. I decided to start my own daycare center.

I called around to different daycare centers and asked if they needed any help. I was surprised to find out that they were all full. I started asking around to see if anyone knew of a daycare center that had a spot open. I eventually found a daycare center that had a spot open and I went to interview for it.

After the interview, the director of the daycare center was impressed with my answers and offered me the job. I was thrilled and accepted the offer. I started working at the daycare center and loved every minute of it. It was so rewarding to see the kids learn and grow.

Two years later, I was ready to start my own daycare center. I had saved up enough money to open a daycare center of my own. I started researching different locations and found a building that was perfect for my daycare center. I worked with a local architect to design the daycare center and got everything ready.

I had about three months to prepare before opening day. I hired a few teachers and started hiring more staff. I also started purchasing supplies and making sure everything was in order.

Opening day arrived and I was nervous but also excited. The daycare center was exactly what I had envisioned and I knew that the kids would love it. I was right. The kids loved the daycare center and kept coming back.

I have been running my daycare center for two years now and I couldn't be happier. I love seeing the kids learn and grow. I am so grateful for the opportunity to start my own daycare center.

James H. Jordan, 65, of 1075 SE at 8th, died Tuesday at a private hospital. A native of Arkansas, Mr. Jordan had lived in Oklahoma City for 37 years. He was a member of the Methodist Church. Survivors include a son, Mrs. A. L. Jordan, 1075 SE 8th, and a daughter, Mrs. A. L. Jordan, 1075 SE 8th.

Agnew, the democratic presidential candidate, endorsed a welfare proposal today. In a speech in New York, he said, "I believe in a welfare system that will provide a fair share of the fruits of our society to every citizen." The proposal is similar to the one supported by President Johnson.

Warr Acres Councilmen, Mayor Debate Authority

The Warr Acres Village Council met Tuesday night to discuss the authority of the mayor. Mayor Thomas G. Pugh said he wanted to know what his duties were. Councilman J. H. Brown said the mayor has authority under the charter. The council voted to study the problem.
