Experts Divided On Effect Of Ho's Death

Communists Lose Unifying Force In War

From The Japan Times

WASHINGTON - American officials consider the death of Ho Chi Minh to be a serious blow to the wars among North Vietnam's allies, which have in the past provided unified support for the Communist cause.

North Vietnam's allies, however, are likely to continue to support the war, but experts are divided about how they will do so.

Some experts say that the death of Ho, who was considered the father of North Vietnam's independence movement, will weaken the Communist cause and could lead to a split among the allies.

Others say that the Communist cause will continue to be strong, and that the allies will continue to support the war.

The situation in the region remains unclear,
and it is difficult to predict how the allies will react to the death of Ho.

Who Will Be Successor?

Plum Tree, China, Oct. 26

(Reuters) - President Ho Chi Minh, who ruled for 25 years, died in Hanoi on Sept. 2 and was buried in the city's new Mausoleum.

Ho, 89, had been ill since a stroke in 1974. He had been hospitalized frequently in recent years.

Ho died at his home on Sept. 2, after suffering a stroke.

The burial ceremony was held on Sept. 2, with thousands of people paying their respects.

The body of Ho was carried to the Mausoleum
in a 21-gun salute.

The funeral procession included a flypast by North Vietnamese Air Force jet fighters.

Ho was a major figure in the history of Vietnam,
leading the fight for independence from France.

He founded the Việt Minh in 1941 and became the leader of the Communist Party of Vietnam in 1945.

Ho was also the founder of the People's Army of Vietnam, which fought against the French and the United States in the Vietnam War.

He was a generous leader who was widely respected during his lifetime.

The death of Ho has left a void in Vietnamese politics, and it is unclear who will take over as leader.

Some experts say that the leadership will be split among several candidates, while others say that one person will emerge as the clear leader.

The situation in Vietnam remains uncertain, and it is difficult to predict who will be the new
leader.

Jayhawk Hicks Is 'The One That Got Away'

Hicks was the national leader in passing yards last season, but he and the Kansas coaching staff expected him to return for his junior year.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — (AP) — Kansas is expecting its star quarterback to return for his junior year, but Hicks' departure in May has sparked rumors about his future plans.

As a transfer to Nebraska, Hicks gained 186 yards in his first year on campus, and he was a key part of the Huskers' offense. Nebraska coach Scott Frost said Hicks would be a welcome addition to the team.

In his senior season, Hicks threw for 4,710 yards and 31 touchdowns. He also rushed for 379 yards and six touchdowns.

Hicks had 12 yards and one touchdown in the team's 38-35 loss to Oklahoma State on Saturday. Kansas was outscored by Oklahoma State 31-21 in the first half and 17-11 in the second half.

Frost said Hicks would be a welcome addition to the Nebraska offense.

Hicks was the national leader in passing yards last season, but he and the Kansas coaching staff expected him to return for his junior year.

In the Orange Bowl against Penn State, Hicks threw for 229 yards and two touchdowns. He was named MVP of the game.

Hicks was also named to the All-Big 12 team and the American Football Coaches Association All-America team.

Sore Leg Puts Owens On Sideline

NEW YORK — (AP) — New York Giants running back Saquon Barkley will miss the rest of the season after suffering a broken ankle on Sunday.

Barkley was injured in the third quarter of the game against the New England Patriots. He was ruled out for the rest of the game and will undergo surgery on Monday.

The injury is a significant blow for the Giants, who were hoping to compete for the NFC East title.

Barkley was named to the Pro Bowl in 2018 and 2019. He has rushed for 2,097 yards and 20 touchdowns in his career.

Kansas’ Rodgers Optimistic, But...

By Tom Meister

Lawrence, Kan. — Kansas basketball coach Bill Self was optimistic about the Jayhawks’ chances in the upcoming season, saying they have the talent to be competitive in the Big 12 Conference.

Self said the team is focused on playing a solid, fundamental game and not getting caught up in the hype.

The Jayhawks won the Big 12 title in Self’s first season as coach, but they lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The team has nine returnees and three transfers.

Enthusiastic Simpson May Start

By Michael LaRosa

Lawrence, Kan. — Kansas head coach Les Miles said he is “very optimistic” about the team’s chances in the upcoming season.

Miles said the Jayhawks have a lot of experience and depth on offense and defense.

The team has two returning quarterbacks and a strong running game.

Miles said the team is looking forward to the challenge of playing in the Big 12 Conference.

The Jayhawks won the Big 12 title in Miles’ first season as coach, but they lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The team has nine returnees and three transfers.

“Simpson has a lot of experience and depth on the outside, and he’s just as good as any other defensive end in the country,” Miles said.

The Jayhawks are looking forward to the challenge of playing in the Big 12 Conference.

The team has nine returnees and three transfers.

In this week's edition of "American Sisters," we feature the story of Mary Brown, a resident of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mary, who is a member of the American Sisterhood, has been an active member of the organization for over 10 years. She has been involved in various community service projects and has made significant contributions to the local community.

Mary, who is also a devout Catholic, has been involved in charitable activities such as food drives and clothing donations. She volunteers at local Catholic Charities and has been a member of the Women's Fellowship for the past five years.

In recognition of her efforts, Mary has been awarded the Silver Cross by the American Sisterhood. This award is given to members who have shown outstanding leadership and dedication to the organization.

Mary credits her interest in community service to her mother, who was also a member of the American Sisterhood. She says that her mother instilled in her a strong sense of commitment to helping others.

We congratulate Mary on her recent award and look forward to seeing her continue to make positive contributions to the community.

Midwest City Man Training at OSU

Several students from Midwest City are currently enrolled in the Pre-Nursing Program at Oklahoma State University. These students are taking classes in preparation for their future careers as nurses.

Among them is John Smith, a senior at Midwest City High School. John has always been interested in the field of nursing and has been working hard to achieve his goal.

"I've always been interested in helping people," John said. "I think nursing is a great way to do that." John plans to major in nursing at OSU and then transfer to a medical school after completing his pre-requisite coursework.

Other students from Midwest City are also excited about their future careers in nursing. They include Jane Doe, a junior at Midwest City High School, and Bob Brown, a senior at Central High School.

We wish all these students success in their studies and look forward to seeing them become successful nurses in the future.

Recipe of the Week

Ices, Sherbets

A national magazine, 25000, sends me the recipe for this project. I prepped and defrosted the food in the microwave. We put the food into a long loaf pan and let it sit for an hour. The food was taken out of the microwave and served warm. A delicious project.

A SIMPLE
FRUITICE MIX

I use fresh fruit for this project. I use pineapple, orange, and grape.

Picnic Chicken

A national magazine, 25000, sends me the recipe for this project. I prepped the food in the microwave. We put the food into a long loaf pan and let it sit for an hour. The food was taken out of the microwave and served warm. A delicious project.

For the next football game, serve this delicious chicken for a crowd. Love it!
