2 Trains Collide, 81 Hurt

CHICAGO (CTV) — Two elevated trains are hit head-on in a surprising accident during the mid night hours. Ten people are killed and eighty-one others are injured in the tragedy. The city is in shock.

At least 200 people are involved in the debris and injuries are acute. The accident was reportedly caused by a conductor error. Police have opened an investigation into the cause.

The investigation was taken by Chicago police and FRA
Federal Railroad Administration.

Several commuters were among the injured. Among them, a woman who lost her life and several others who suffered serious injuries.

The injured were taken to different hospitals. Many of them are severely injured and are in critical condition.

State Fair To Open

The State Fair of Oklahoma is set for Monday, and a professional stock show and performance schedule will be set in the Daily Oklahoman for today. The fair will be open today through Saturday, with the grand opening being held Sunday. The fair is located on the north shore of Lake Hefner, and admission is 50 cents. A parking area located near the fair will be used for cars, and an additional parking lot will be available.

Board Taps Smith For School Plans

In one of the most significant school moves in recent history, the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma City Public Schools hired Dr. James A. Smith to replace the outgoing superintendent, who has been with the district for 17 years. Smith, who has served as the superintendent of the Oklahoma City Public Schools since 1982, will take over as superintendent of the Oklahoma City Public Schools.

Speech

The state of Oklahoma is at a crossroads, said Gov. David C. Carter, as he addressed a joint session of the legislature. Carter, who is in his second term, said that the state is facing significant challenges, including education, healthcare, and the economy. He urged the legislature to work together to find solutions to these challenges.

Vote

The city of Oklahoma City voted to approve a new city charter, which will go into effect next year. The charter, which was approved by a vote of 6-0, will allow the city to have a mayor-council form of government, which is the most popular form of city government.

Social Security Jackpot

The Social Security Administration has announced that the jackpot for the next drawing will be $1.7 million. The jackpot was created by a series of failed drawings, and the next drawing will be held today. Those who wish to participate can purchase a ticket for $1.7 million. The winning ticket will be drawn at random.
