Parents Rightfully Fear Youths' Drug Use

By ROBERT SCOTT

The increasing drug use among children and adolescents is a cause for concern among parents and educators. Despite efforts to educate youth about the dangers of drug use, the problem continues to escalate. Drug addiction among young people has become a national crisis, with alarming statistics showing a rise in both use and abuse.

In Los Angeles, the U.S. Attorney's Office has taken a strong stance against drug dealers. Recently, a local street gang was charged with possession of narcotics with intent to distribute. This gang has a long history of violent behavior and drug involvement, making it a significant threat to the community.

Beret Trial Needed To Clear Air

As the Green Beret case is set last week, back in June, the nation and the world share the same question: Where are the Berets? What happened to them? How are they doing? Why are they not being heard? Where are they going? What will happen to them? What will happen to the nation?

The world outside Home seems to be concerned about the case of the Berets. They do not seem to understand that the world outside Home is concerned about the case of the Berets.

Joyce Neumann, Stanley Neumann has appeared in Home newspapers and on television, and on the radio. He has appeared at the General's House, and on the General's House.
