President Nixon greeted as he arrives to report to Congress on steps for total withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam.

Harris Takes Gloves Off On Vietnam Issue

WASHINGTON — President Nixon today called for a total withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam in the next 12 months, setting the stage for a major showdown with Congress on the long-awaited U.S. exit from the war.

The move, which was announced in a televised address to the nation, marks a significant shift in the administration's Vietnam policy and could lead to a deadly military conflict if Congress resists the president's demand.

Medicare Cost Up For Aged

WASHINGTON — The cost of Medicare for the elderly will increase by 12% next year, according to new projections by the Congressional Budget Office.

The increase, which is driven by rising hospital costs and inflation, will raise the average monthly premium to $470 for 2023, up from $330 in 2022.

Guards Kill Prisoner; 46 Hurt

PENDELTON, Ore. (AP) — At least 46 people were injured when prison guards shot and killed a prisoner during a riot at the Federal Correctional Institution in Pendleton, authorities said.

The incident, which occurred in the late afternoon, left several inmates with life-threatening injuries, according to the U.S. Marshals Service.

Nixon Slaps Deadline Bill

WASHINGTON — President Nixon today signed a deadline bill that would force Congress to act on a proposed constitutional amendment to end the war in Vietnam by the end of the year.

The measure, which sets a Nov. 1 deadline, is seen as a key bargaining chip in negotiations with Congress over the war.

By NIXON POLICY

Two police officers were critically injured on the field during a Saturday night brawl at a high school football game.

According to reports, the two officers were attacked by a group of students after a controversial call by the game's official.

The officers, who were responding to a扰乱 call, were assaulted with a baseball bat and a rock, and suffered severe head injuries.

The assault is being investigated as a hate crime.

Integration Plan Sought

By JANE EALY

Oklahoma City — The state's largest city is considering a new integration plan to address ongoing racial tensions.

The plan, which was proposed by the city's school board, would establish a new, independent school district to serve predominantly black neighborhoods.

The proposal has been met with mixed reactions, with some residents supporting it as a way to address systemic racism, while others oppose it as a form of segregation.

Staff Discussion

Members of the staff of the Senate Select Committee on Foreign Intelligence, headed by Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, and Rep. Lee H. Hamilton, D-Ind., have been getting together in the Senate office building at 8 a.m. for the last 3½ months. Behind the scenes, the committee has been preparing to go public with three reports that, sources say, could provide a snapshot of the CIA's role in helping South Vietnam during the Vietnam War.

Tiny Tim’s ‘Miss Vicki’ Could Be Any Girl In Love

By Sandy Silver

Miss Vicki, who became a hit on television last fall, is back this summer, and she’s as cute, cuddly, and lovable as ever. Her adventures, which are based on the comic strip by Al Capp, take place in the fictional town of Flunder, which is a mix of New York and Hollywood. In the comic strip, Miss Vicki is a young girl who dreams of becoming a star, and her adventures are filled with romance,enanement, and humor. The comic strip is known for its satirical take on the entertainment industry and its depiction of the struggles of a young girl trying to make it in Hollywood. The story of Miss Vicki’s dreams and aspirations is relatable to many young girls who are chasing their own dreams, and the strip’s humor and wit make it a joy to read. The strip has been a hit for many years, and its popularity has only grown with the introduction of the Miss Vicki TV show. The comic strip’s success is a testament to the power of good storytelling and humor, and it’s a reminder that even in the most absurd situations, there is always a kernel of truth and humanity at the heart of the story.

Bellmon's Instant Seniority

It seems ironic to hear Tom Bellmon of Oklahoma City say: "I'm not sure how long I'll be in Congress."

The people who say that have a habit of saying that. But they usually stick around. Mr. Bellmon's current image may be that of a freshman, but he has said he might run for re-election in 1966 if he wins in 1964. He has been in Congress two years this January. And no one has yet been elected to Congress who has a better chance of being re-elected.

Hayworth's Lack of Sensitivity

Putting aside the racial issue as far as Bellmon's congressional experience in the 14th District is concerned, Mr. Bellmon is a man of unusual sensitivity. He is the first negro to be elected to Congress from Oklahoma since Senator Estes Kefauver was elected to Congress in 1938. However, the people of the 14th District have been waiting a long time for a negro candidate to come along.

Women Who'll Put the Tax Bite On

Senator Snavely

As we go to print, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield is calling for action on the tax bill. The Senate budget committee is expected to report a tax bill to the full Senate this week. After the Senate passes the bill, it will come to the House for consideration.

Demos, Organized Labor

Billy Graham

There is a decided tendency among the organized labor leaders in this country to consider the Democratic Party as their political home. This is true of the labor movement in Oklahoma, as well as in the rest of the country. The Democratic Party is the party that stands for the working man, and it is the party that stands for the workers in this country.

'Fat Cats' Yearn For Days Of LBJ

The Washington Merry-Go-Round is in full swing again. There is a feeling in the Senate that the time is ripe for a change in the leadership of the Senate. It is a feeling that is shared by many members of the Senate.
