Reds Kill 5 Marines At Outpost
SARGENT (U.S.S.) — Communist guerrillas today killed five Marines in an ambush of a border outpost in Sargent, U.S.S. Marino and South Vietnam Marine units were sent there to reinforce the border guards. The incident took place in the early morning hours, and the Marines were killed by enemy gunfire.

Cease-Fire?

Major Nixon Moves Slated
WASHINGTON (AP) — There was no word today on whether a cease-fire agreement would be signed between the United States and North Vietnam. The State Department said that discussions were continuing, but it refused to set a deadline for the talks.

Fred Hails Protests, Spiro Raps 'Snobs'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Fred Haines of Oklahoma, a strong supporter of the war in Vietnam, today praised anti-war protesters, saying they were expressing a legitimate viewpoint. Haines, who has often been at odds with the administration, called the protesters' demonstrations a healthy sign of concern among Americans.

Friendly Elephant Sells Contraceptives In India

By WILLIAM J. DOUGLAS

In the span of 500 years, the elephant has evolved from being a harmless, gentle animal to a powerful, aggressive beast. This transformation has been attributed to the introduction of the so-called "contraceptives," which have changed the way people think about the elephant. The contraceptives, which are available in various forms, have been widely used in India, where the elephant population is estimated to be around 20,000.

In this age of gimmicks and chrome, is there a place for a car so masterfully engineered that 90 percent of its value is invisible?

Mercedes-Benz thinks so.

Yesterday's roadsters had engines that were basically only a car. They were fast, flashy, and loud. But today's cars are different. They are quiet, smooth, and efficient. They are also more expensive. For example, the new Mercedes-Benz S-Class costs more than $100,000.

Washington Just Buzzing Along

Washington's offense is a sight to behold. With a mix of running and passing, the team has been scoring points at an alarming rate. The defense, on the other hand, has been solid, allowing few opportunities for the opposition. Coach Joe Gibbs has done a great job of keeping the team focused and motivated.
