Police halt Marchers At Main, Walker

This was the scene Monday when police halted the marchers at Main and Walker, who charged the street. Capt. E. J. Ryan, chief of police, and Patrolman P. W. Vann stand at right in front of the chief. Mrs. C. D. Walker, center, of the group, said to police, "We don't want a revolution, we just want our rights." Other members of the group included Mrs. C. D. Walker, center, and Mrs. M. J. Walker, right.

Massive Tax Cut Approved

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Senate Finance Committee, which will consider the tax cut, said the bill would save $30 billion in tax cuts for the federal government.
