Burch Denies TV Threats

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Dean Burch, President Nixon's new chief at the Federal Communications Commission, Thursday denied allegations heбегот to intimidate the Federal Commission by issuing the warning that "A Tale of Two Vicious Cynics." The last word, Burch told a Senate subcommittee, he unequivocally denied. Contacting the network support, he said he was a "newsman," not a "reporter," but admitted he had misled the broadcast.

In a separate meeting, President Nixon is reported to have expressed confidence in the Federal Commission's ability to handle the crisis.

Kamm Bars Speedy Action On Black Demands

OKLAHOMA CITY — Oklahoma State University President Robert Kamm-Turkey refused to take immediate action on 11 demands submitted by a group of students who have been occupying the Student Center for four days. President Kamm expressed to the Oklahoma Daily that the students are "not going to be helped in any way until we get the situation under control." He said that the students' demands are "not in the best interest of the University," and that the university will not accommodate them.

The demands include the establishment of a black studies program, the removal of all black students from the university, the creation of a black student union, and the appointment of a black vice president. President Kamm said that the university will not meet with the students until they agree to the university's terms.

The students have been occupying the Student Center since November 11, demanding the university's response to their demands. They have been living in the center, eating, and sleeping there, and have been holding meetings and protests.

The university has not responded to the students' demands, and the students have been demanding that the university address their concerns.
