Youthful Impatience No Answer

A letter to the editor from an Oklahoma City, Okla., resident expresses the frustration of some parents over the growing impatience of their teenage sons.

"I have a son nearing 16, and he is too much trouble for me. He doesn't listen to me when I try to give him advice. He is always in a hurry and doesn't want to hear what I have to say. I feel like I'm fighting a losing battle.

I know I'm not alone in this. Other parents have written to me expressing similar concerns. It seems like the younger generation is growing up so fast and we can't keep up.

I feel like I'm losing control of my son. He's not listening to me, not doing what I tell him. It's frustrating."

The PEOPLE'S Voice

Principle

The People's Voice. This is a message from the editor of The Oklahoma Journal, who is a staunch advocate of free speech and the right to express one's opinions.

"The People's voice is a powerful thing. It gives us the chance to speak out and make our voices heard. It's what makes democracy work."

WASHINGTON - The March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom was a powerful event that brought together people from all walks of life to demand equality and justice for African Americans.

"It was a momentous occasion. People from all over the country came together to symbolically walk to the White House to demand equal rights."

U.S. Lambasted In Mideast

WASHINGTON - The United States has come under criticism for its role in the Mideast. Some say we are fomenting instability and violence by our actions.

"We need to reevaluate our strategy in the Mideast. We can't continue to support dictators and regimes that are unstable and violent."

Red Talks Deadlocked

WASHINGTON - The talks between the President and the Soviet leaders have been deadlocked. The President has been pushing for more sanctions against the Soviet Union.

"I'm not sure the talks will ever come to a conclusion. It could be another year before we see any progress."
