GI Admits Killing 10-15 In Song My

New York City (AP) - A German-English dictionary said, "Sing My" is a place in the west of the United States. A GI has admitted killing 10-15 people in "Song My" but the manner of his admission is not clear.

Paul Martin of Terre Haute, Ind., appearing in a county court and speaking through an interpreter, said he was a GI stationed in Vietnam. He said he had killed 10-15 people in "Song My" but refused to give further details.

Lt. Col. Sidney C. Calley, Vietnam's chief of staff, said the GI had admitted killing 10-15 people in "Song My" but did not disclose the manner in which he did so.

Maj. Gen. John C. McLaughlin said the GI had admitted killing 10-15 people in "Song My" but refused to give further details.

The GI was arrested for murder and was later released on bail. He was later declared unfit for military service.

The incident has caused a sensation in the United States and has raised questions about the conduct of American soldiers in Vietnam.

Lt. Calley Faces Trial

Washington (AP) - The Army has charged a general officer with "wrongful conduct" for the alleged participation in the massacre of 10-15 people in "Song My." The officer, Lt. Col. Sidney C. Calley, has been relieved of his duties and is facing trial.

The incident has caused a sensation in the United States and has raised questions about the conduct of American soldiers in Vietnam.

President Promotes Explorers

Dr. H. F. Jones, the director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, announced today that he had appointed a new team of scientists to explore the moon.

Jones said that the team would be under the leadership of Dr. E. T. Smith, a leading space scientist.

"We have made a great deal of progress in our exploration of the moon," Jones said. "But there is still much to learn about this mysterious world."

"We have already learned that the moon is covered with a pitted surface," Jones continued. "We have also discovered that the moon has a crust that is much thinner than we had thought."

"But there is still much we do not know about the moon," Jones said. "We need to learn more about its climate, its geology, and its history."

"I am confident that this new team of scientists will make significant contributions to our understanding of the moon," Jones concluded.

Integration Tax Bill's Of State's Insufficiency Home Hit Hikes Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate approved the tax bill that was passed by the House last week. The bill would increase the state's tax on cigarettes and other tobacco products.

"This bill is necessary to ensure that our state's revenue is sufficient to meet the needs of our residents," said Senator John Smith, the sponsor of the bill. "It is time that we take responsibility for the needs of our citizens and make the necessary sacrifices.

"I am confident that this bill will be signed into law by the governor," Smith concluded.

Mom Doesn't Always Know Best, Says 'Claudia' Author

By AMY CARMEL

In the latest "Claudia" comic strip, the title character is shown grappling with a typical mother-daughter scenario. Claudia, the independent 13-year-old, is frustrated with her mother's constant advice and干预. The strip begins with Claudia discussing her plans for the weekend with her mother, who insists on tagging along. Claudia, feeling annoyed, responds with a fitting retort: "Fine, you come too. How do I say 'I don't want you to come' without being rude?"

The humorous exchange highlights the common母女关系 dynamics, where the daughter seeks independence while the mother worries about her child's safety and well-being. The cartoonist, Amy Carmel, explores the dynamic between generations through the lens of Claudia's adventures, making it relatable for readers of all ages.
