Unions Delay Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fate of a broad-ranging union proposal that would give federal government employees their largest pay raise in decades was in doubt after a Senate committee killed the measure late Wednesday.

The proposal, which included a 6.6% pay raise for federal workers, was supported by both Republicans and Democrats. However, the measure failed to pass the Senate due to a procedural obstacle.

Petition Was A Misnomer

By W.P. CARTER

Dally City's mayoral candidate, Senator Carpentier, announced Tuesday that he had sponsored a petition drive in an effort to have the city's name changed to "Dally City." The petition drive was organized by the Mayor's Office and was signed by over 1,000 residents.

The petition drive was followed by a rally and march calling for the name change. The mayor's message was that the city's name has been misnamed and that it needs a new name that better reflects the city's identity.

The petition drive was supported by many residents, who believe that the current name is not representative of the city's diversity and history. The mayor's message was that the petition drive was a success and that the city is now considering changing its name.

The mayor's office has also announced plans to hold a public hearing to discuss the name change and to listen to the voices of the residents who are in favor of the change.

State Editors Say

Women On The Warpath

The state editors have called for women to take a more active role in the war effort. The editors believe that women have a lot to offer in terms of their skills and expertise, and that they could be valuable assets in the war effort.

The editors have encouraged women to consider joining the armed forces or to support their husbands and sons who are serving in the military.

The editors have also called for women to take on more leadership roles in their communities, and to support the war effort in other ways.

Railroads Need Push

By W.P. CARTER

The state editors have called for a push to improve the railroads. The editors believe that the railroads are in need of modernization and that they could play a significant role in the war effort.

The editors have called for Congress to provide funding for the railroads and to work with the states to develop a comprehensive plan for modernizing the rail system.

The editors have also called for the federal government to provide incentives for businesses to invest in the railroads.

Photos

The photos on this page depict various scenes from around the city. The photos show the hard work of the people who are contributing to the war effort. The photos include images of workers in factories, soldiers on duty, and families at home.
