Miami Goes Wild
For Mayor Steve

By STELLA WHITE
MIAMI, Fla. — Mayor Owens lost the election at Miami High School, but he managed to win it at Miami's Memorial Park, where he was surrounded by jubilant motorists in cars, buses, and trucks.

Mayor Owens, a 34-year-old former police officer, had campaigned on a promise to clean up Miami and bring the city's growing crime problem under control. He won a narrow margin over his opponent, the incumbent mayor, who had been in office for 10 years.

The victory was a surprise to many, as the incumbent mayor was widely regarded as the front-runner. However, Mayor Owens's campaign message resonated with voters who were tired of the incumbent mayor's lack of action on crime.

Mayor Owens's victory was celebrated by his supporters, who filled the streets of Miami with joyous honking and cheering.

House Votes
Defense Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) - The House voted 268-165 to cut $1.3 billion from the defense budget, less than the $2.7 billion cut the Senate approved.

The House's action came as the two chambers were working on a fiscal year 2023 budget agreement. The House bill would cut $1.3 billion from the defense budget, while the Senate bill would cut $2.7 billion.

The House's action was expected to face opposition from the White House and some Republicans, who have said they will not support a budget deal that cuts defense funding.
