Bishop’s First Act Is To Form Senate

Church leaders agreed yesterday that a new body known as the Senate would replace the Council of Bishops in its special capacity of hearing and passing upon the charges against Bishop Satterfield. The move was made in a special meeting called at the last minute by Bishop Satterfield after a day of heated discussion and argument in the Council.

The new body will be composed of seven members, with the Bishop Council serving as the Senate. The new arrangement was expected to produce a smoother and more effective working relationship in handling the Church’s internal affairs.

all bank premium savings plans are not the same...

The Oklahoma Past to Your Future

You work hard to provide a comfortable life for your family, and you always try to do the best you can for your children. But, sometimes, life can be unpredictable. That’s why it’s important to have a plan in place to ensure that your family is taken care of when you’re not around.

So, what’s the best way to do this? One option is to open a bank account that offers a premium savings plan. These plans typically offer higher interest rates than traditional savings accounts, which means you’ll earn more on your money over time.

But not all bank premium savings plans are the same. It’s important to do your research and choose the plan that best fits your needs and financial goals.

To learn more about premium savings plans, contact your local bank or credit union. They can help you understand the benefits and drawbacks of each option and guide you in making the best decision for your family’s future.

Price Lists Aid Consumer

Consumer advocates in the state of Oklahoma have urged the legislature to consider a bill that would require price lists to be posted in all retail stores. The bill, if passed, would require retailers to post a list of all items sold in their store, including the price of each item. This measure is expected to help consumers compare prices and make informed decisions when shopping.

Grid Coach Of Future May Have Real Woes

Jim Murray

"Gridiron" is the last thing that comes to mind when you think of the future. But for the past few weeks, the term has been the talk of the town. The Grid Coach, who has been coaching for over 20 years, has shown signs of slowing down. His team's performance has suffered as a result.

"It's been a tough season," the coach said. "We've had some injuries and some key players out, but it's more than that. The team just isn't clicking. I don't know what it is." He went on to say that he's considering retirement, but that he wants to see his team through the season. "I want to make sure they get the best possible experience," he said.

Pirates Decision
Marshall, 27-12

Irish Upset Win
Over Star

By W.F. GRIFFIN, Jr.

The Pirates made it a close game, but the Marshall Marauders emerged victorious with a 27-12 win. The game was intense and had fans on the edge of their seats. The Irish, who were favored to win, had their chances but couldn't capitalize on them.

"It was a tough game," said the coach. "We had our chances to pull it out but couldn't get it done." He went on to say that he's happy with the effort the team put in.

Closing Prices Listed On The New York Stock Exchange

Insurance, Bank And Trust
New York Stock Exchange lists 1971 progress in efficiency and ability to serve shareowners, and previews important changes for the new year.

A letter to shareowners:

The start of a new year following an unusually eventful one in the securities industry makes this a good time to report on the shareowners' problems on current developments in the New York Stock Exchange.

During 1971 the central marketplace that the Exchange provides saw new records in the scope and volume of securities transactions. The year's total of 3.9 billion shares sold on the Exchange reached new highs. The $6.6 billion of stock sold during the year, and an additional $6.1 billion of equities sold not through the Exchange.

The 108 companies whose stocks became listed on the Big Board for the first time during the year set a record. Today the shares of 1,459 companies representing a market value of approximately $716 billion are traded on the Exchange.

An unprecedented volume of trading-average of 13.4 million shares per day-was handled by members of the Exchange. The total of "calls to deliver," between brokerage firms, one indicator of paperwork problems, which had set a high water mark of 1.4 billion in December 1968, is down 75% that peak and is continuing at a normal level by Exchange standards.

Centralized Clearing Services:

A major feature in this increased efficiency was the Exchange's Centralized Clearing Services, designed to cover all big issues of the New York and American Exchanges, and nearly 350 over-the-counter securities. The Service, which eliminates stock certificates by effecting deliveries of stock electronically, has already reduced Wall Street paperwork by approximately 60% in the transactions handled. Banks participating in this system are expected to take part soon.

In the offing is a plan whereby the major changes in the centralized clearing system: the National Association of Securities Dealers' broker world of dealers and brokers. The planned system is designed to convert the NASDAQ into a single overall national system. In the plans is expected to be a service of registered brokers, and major institutions are expected to take part soon.
