Del City Church Growing With Help Of Ex-Actor

By JUANITA CASKIN

The Del City Church has been growing at a fast pace as a result of the help of an ex-actor who has been instrumental in attracting new members.

This church has been in the community for many years, but recently, a former actor who moved to the area began volunteering his time to assist in growing the congregation.

"It's been amazing to see the church grow so quickly," said the actor. "I feel blessed to be able to help in any way I can." The church now has over a hundred members and continues to grow每周ly.

OCU Institute Heirs Urgent Call For Laws To Limit Noise

By STEVE MECK

More than 20 families around the city have called police to stop noise by the year 1972, but the city has no plan to deal with the problem, according to a professor at the OCU Institute for Environmental Quality.

Price List Violations Tabulated

Throughout the city, the number of violations of the city's noise ordinance is increasing, according to the professor. The ordinance, which is enforced by the city's code enforcement officers, has been in effect for 10 years.

2 Employers At Air Base Are Charged

The Oklahoma Air National Guard and the Oklahoma City Police Department are among the employers that have been charged with noise violations.

Auto Carrying 35 Overcrowded

A man was arrested after a car carrying 35 passengers was stopped by police. The man was charged with violating the state's overcrowding laws.

Teachers Asked To Out Blocks

A group of parents and teachers have asked the school board to consider adding playground areas to the school grounds.

Price List Violations Tabulated

The city has compiled a list of violations and violators, according to the professor. The list includes violations of the city's noise ordinance, which is enforced by the code enforcement officers.
