Mice Spark Racial Brawl In Dallas School

Cafeteria Prank Leaves 16 Injured

DALLAS PAPER — A student at Allens Park High School here was hit in the head by a mouse Friday and then the incident turned into a mass riot Friday night. The incident left 16 persons injured, including a student and a teacher. Several displaced persons were reported to have been injured in the melee.

About a dozen displaced persons were injured in the melee. Most Allston's victims were injured by a flying table. Mrs April was allowed to walk away from the scene.

TROY Leiner and others called the police. They said a two-hour delay had been ordered in the cafeteria at the Allston High School. The victims were injured by the flying table, which had been placed on the floor. Mrs April was allowed to walk away from the scene.

Hughes Bank Denies Claim

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Department of Justice today announced that it had reached a settlement with Hughes Bank, N.A., of Dallas, Texas, following a December 2010 lawsuit filed against the bank by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The settlement agreement requires Hughes Bank to pay $4.5 million in civil penalties and to cease and desist from engaging in the illegal activity.

Death Row Strike Ends

McALISTER (Okla.) — The Oklahoma State Department of Corrections' strike by inmates at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary has ended.

The strike began earlier this month and was sparked by concerns about living conditions, including overcrowding and inadequate medical care.

The strike ended after negotiations between the Department of Corrections and the Oklahoma Prison Reform Committee, which represents the inmates.
