BREAK APPEARS IN DOCK STRIKE

Draft Unlikely
I-H Means Off The Hook

By STEVE DREYER

Draft-age men who have received a new draft classification of 4-D will take over the draft designees.

They are in what would be called "deferred classifications," the office of Selective Service in Denver, said Thursday.

"Or, in some cases put in, it's called the blow-off," the office said.

The Defense Supply Agency for "blow-off," meaning that persons in this class will not be drafted. But deferred classification is expected that the men in this category will not be drafted.

Some women have been called for the draft, but they have been "deferred," the office said.

In all, about 10,000 men a day are expected to receive new classifications.

The Defense Department has said it will continue to make the new classifications until the end of the month.

Hall Pushes Senate
For Road Bond Vote

By HARRY CHAPIN

Gov. Bob Hall said Friday he would push for a road bond vote with the Senate on Monday or Tuesday, as he announced that he and the House have made no formal agreement on a bond package.

"I am committed to this,'' the governor said.

The governor's announcement came as he prepared to leave for a trip to Washington, D.C., where he will appear before a Senate committee on Tuesday.

Gasoline Lead
Ban Proposed

WASHINGTON - A proposed bill to ban the use of gasoline lead in the state of Washington is being considered by the Senate.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. Bob Smith, R-Tacoma, would prohibit the use of gasoline containing more than 10 parts per million of lead.

U.S. Senator Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., introduced the bill in the Senate last week.

"This bill is a step toward a safer environment for all Americans,'' Kennedy said.

The bill has been endorsed by a number of environmental groups, including the Sierra Club and the League of Conservation Voters.

The Senate is expected to vote on the bill in the next few days.
