Meredith Plans Race For Senate

February 6, 1972

Meridian, Miss.

Meredith College, the all-girls school in this Mississippi town, is planning to run a candidate for the United States Senate.

The college's board of trustees is expected to meet tomorrow to consider the option of running a candidate for the Senate seat that is currently held by Senator James O. Eastland.

The decision to run for Senate is seen as a way to combat the conservative influence of the state and to promote the liberal values of the college.

Punch ‘N’ Pancakes For Valentine’s Day...

Treat Family To Their Favorites

Pancake Batter

2 cups all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
Pinch of salt
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup egg

Preheat your griddle or skillet to medium-high heat. In a large mixing bowl, whisk together the flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt. In another bowl, whisk together the milk, egg, and melted butter. Pour the wet ingredients into the dry ingredients and mix until just combined. The batter should be smooth and slightly lumpy. If you find it too thick, whisk in a bit more milk to achieve the desired consistency.

Nonstick cooking spray

Heat a large nonstick skillet over medium heat. Spray with nonstick cooking spray and add a ladleful of batter (about 1/4 cup). Swirl the skillet to distribute the batter evenly. Cook for 1-2 minutes until bubbles form on the surface of the pancake. Flip with a spatula and cook for another 1-2 minutes until golden brown on the other side. Remove to a plate and repeat with remaining batter.

Syrup

1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/4 cup water
1/4 cup maple syrup

In a small saucepan over medium heat, combine the sugar, water, and maple syrup. Bring to a simmer and cook for 5-7 minutes until the sugar is dissolved. Remove from heat and allow to cool to room temperature. Serve with the pancakes.

Variations:

Maple-Cinnamon Syrup
- Replace half of the maple syrup with ground cinnamon
- Add a pinch of nutmeg

Chocolate Chip Syrup
- Replace half of the maple syrup with chocolate chips
- Melt chocolate chips in a small saucepan with a bit of milk

Cherry-Almond Syrup
- Replace half of the maple syrup with canned cherries
- Add a splash of almond extract

Cinnamon-Spice Syrup
- Replace half of the maple syrup with ground cinnamon and nutmeg
- Add a pinch of cloves

Hazelnut Syrup
- Replace half of the maple syrup with hazelnut flavoring
- Add a pinch of salt

Serve pancakes with a generous drizzle of your chosen syrup and enjoy a delightful Valentine’s Day treat with your family.

'New Journalist' Tom Wolfe To Speak At OU Tuesday

Tom Wolfe

An ikon of the New Journalism movement, Tom Wolfe has been heralded as a 'newspaperman' for his rollicking, hyper-realistic prose style. His latest book, 'The Right Stuff,' has sold millions of copies and established him as one of the most influential writers of his generation.

Wolfe's approach to writing is as much a part of his success as his inimitable style. He often draws on his own experiences, whether it's researching the lives of astronauts or chronicling the exploits of a group of New York City's most eccentric has-beens. His ability to immerse himself in his subjects and bring them to life on the page has earned him a loyal following among readers and critics alike.

Wolfe will be speaking at the University of Oklahoma on Tuesday, discussing his latest work and the future of journalism. Don't miss this opportunity to hear from one of the most innovative writers of our time.
