Four Seasons Surviving Its Problems

The Saga of Four Seasons (Out of Step)

By JUNE TEMPEST

Congratulations! You’re in the pleasure business. Marketing 4 seasons off the book is a bit hard to do. The problem is that blackbirders are a fickle bunch. They like to stay close to home. But if they’re going to be away from home, they want to spend as much money as possible. That’s why we’re offering a special 4-seasons package for the month of April. It’s called the “Spring Savings Package” and it includes a free backyard BBQ and a chance to win a $1,000 gift card to a local retailer. So if you’re interested, be sure to book your stay now.

New Security Rules Ordered

by BERNARD CHANDLER

Washinton, D.C. — The Department of Transportation has issued new security rules for airlines.

The new rules include:

1. All passengers must present a valid photo ID at the airport. This includes passports, driver’s licenses, and other government-issued credentials.
2. All carry-on luggage must be screened through airport security checkpoints.
3. All checked luggage must be screened through airport security checkpoints.
4. All passengers must undergo a body scan at airport security checkpoints.
5. All passengers must undergo a full body search at airport security checkpoints.

These rules are intended to enhance security and prevent the occurrence of future terrorist attacks. Airline companies have been given 60 days to implement these new rules.

Portugal Schools Proposed

by BYRON CHARDON

Lisbon, Portugal — The Portuguese government has announced plans to build new schools in Lisbon.

The new schools will be built on the site of the old Jardim dos Poetas, which was destroyed in a fire last year. The new schools will accommodate 3,000 students and will be equipped with state-of-the-art technology.

These new schools are part of the government’s efforts to improve education in Portugal. The government has also announced plans to increase funding for education and to reduce class sizes.
Panhellenic Schedules Party For Area Senior Girls

"They've lived so long that they've seen the evolution of the beauty contest over the years. It changed from the old beauty contest, which had a national beauty queen, to the Miss America Contest and later to the Miss Teen Contest," notes N. Gayle Jamison, a member of the Delta Phi Epsilon sorority. "Now we're seeing the development of the girl who's been through this process and wants to help younger girls achieve their dreams."

Delta Tau Delta Meets To Discuss Spring Events

"Our chapter is very active in the community," says Delta Tau Delta, a sorority at the University of Oklahoma. "We're involved in several events throughout the year, including charity events, social events, and academic events. We're also active in community service."

Juniors To Meet With Women's Faculty Council

"The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the needs and concerns of the junior class," says the University of Oklahoma. "We're interested in hearing from the junior class about their experiences and what they need to succeed."

Church Women Plan Benefit Sale

"Our chapter is planning a benefit sale to raise money for a local charity," says the University of Oklahoma. "Our goal is to raise at least $1,000 to support the charity."

"It's important for us to give back to our community," says the University of Oklahoma. "We want to make a difference and help those in need."

Pre-Nuptial Parties Set To Fete Barbara Breisch

"Our chapter is planning a pre-nuptial party to celebrate the upcoming wedding of Barbara Breisch," says the University of Oklahoma. "We're excited to help Barbara and her fiancé celebrate their upcoming nuptials."
