TRIESTE, N.J. (AP) — A high school music teacher who allegedly took part in a hazing incident that led to the death of a student has been arrested.

The teacher, identified as John J. Meeker, was charged with first-degree murder and felony murder.

Meeker was arrested Sunday night and will be held in the Ocean County Jail until his next court appearance.

Meeker was a music teacher at Ocean County High School in Brick, where the incident occurred.

The student who died, identified as John J. Kaiser, was a junior at the school.

Kaiser was found dead in his home on March 30.

An autopsy revealed that he had died of blunt force trauma.

The incident occurred during a hazing incident that took place on March 29.

Meeker's attorney, John J. Meeker, said his client is being held without bail on charges of murder and felony murder.

Meeker has been suspended from his teaching position.

Meeker was a popular teacher who had been at the school for several years.

Meeker is due in court on May 2 for a pretrial conference.

The case is being handled by Ocean County Prosecutor Joseph D. Bocchini.

Bocchini said his office is continuing to investigate the incident and will provide updates as they become available.

The investigation is being conducted by the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office and the Ocean County Sheriff's Department.

The Ocean County Prosecutor's Office said it is seeking the public's assistance in identifying anyone who may have information regarding the incident.

The public is encouraged to contact the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office at (800) 652-5656 or to submit tips online at www.oceancountyprosecutor.org.
