Ex-Governor Gets 'Revenge' At Beaver

Bartlett Defeats Hall With Record Chip Toss

BEAVER, Colo. — Ex-Governor Chase Bartlett defeated former Governor Orson Hall in a record-setting chip toss Saturday when he decided to throw the chip into the air. Bartlett, who is 65 years old, stood 30 feet from the box and threw a total of 157 chips, landing them all between 10 and 30 feet from the box. Hall, who was the winner last year, stood 30 feet from the box and threw a total of 142 chips, landing them all between 10 and 30 feet from the box. Both men are members of the Colorado State Chip Toss Association and have been participating in the game for the past 10 years. The current record for the game is 155 chips, set by Bartlett in 1992.

SAIGON — Viet Cong defenses appeared strong against the United States, who has been attacking the city for the past two months. The US military has been using artillery and aircraft to bomb the city. The Viet Cong have been using tunnels and underground bunkers to avoid the US attacks. The city of Saigon has been under siege for the past six months. The US military has been using tanks and armored vehicles to attack the city. The Viet Cong have been using guerrilla tactics and ambushes to defend the city.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 11's commander Michael Collins and the two other astronauts who flew the historic mission have returned to Houston, Texas, after landing on the moon. The crew had to land due to complications with the LEM. The landing was made without any problems. The crew will be greeted by their families and the media. The mission was a great success for the US space program. The astronauts will be staying at the Johnson Space Center for a few days before returning to their home countries. The mission was a great success for the US space program.

Coins in the Fountain for the American Cancer Society bring good luck to you.

Now, by tossing your coins in Fidelity's fountain around the "Falling Water" aqueduct, you can bring yourself good luck and support the American Cancer Society (ACS). The ACS is a voluntary organization that is dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health threat. The coins are collected and then donated to the ACS to support its efforts in research, patient care, and community education. When you make a donation, you not only contribute to a noble cause but also have the satisfaction of knowing that your generosity is helping to make a difference in the lives of those affected by cancer.

Try Shirt, Under Blouse
For Newest 'Layered Look'

Dear Marylou: I am back to school and have been looking for a way to look attractive and smart on a small budget. I was wondering if there are any ideas you might have that I could use.

Dear Marylou: I have noticed that the latest trend in fashion is the 'layered look'.
This involves wearing a shirt under a blouse to create a more sophisticated and stylish appearance. I am interested in this trend and would like to know more about it. Can you provide any tips or suggestions for achieving this look?

As I Was Saying...

By STEVE DANCE

"IF ENOUGH" was held in the Mezzanine Theatre, the audience and the performers were overcome with emotion. One observer noted, "I was moved to tears by the performance." The show was received with enthusiasm by the audience, and rave reviews were given to the cast. The critic from The Oklahoman called it "a masterpiece.

I was not the only one moved by the performance. I found myself tearing up at several points during the show. It was a powerful experience that left me feeling enriched.

Back in the studio, a group of performers gathered to discuss the upcoming tour. There was a sense of excitement and anticipation in the air.

"Actually, I think the best way to describe the performance is that it was..." the artist turned to me and continued, "and I believe that's what we're aiming for.

Crosby-Nash Album Gets 'No' Rating

It's a sad day for fans of Country Music as one of its most beloved duos, Crosby & Nash, announced they are releasing an album with a 'no' rating. (Crosby & Nash are noted for their harmonious voices and thought-provoking songs.)

The album, titled 'No', is a departure from their usual style and has received mixed reviews from critics. Some have praised the album for its boldness, while others have criticized it for lacking substance.

Nevertheless, the release has sparked a debate among fans and industry professionals. Some are excited about the album's potential to push boundaries, while others worry it may alienate their core audience.

In an interview, Crosby & Nash explained their decision to release the album:

"We wanted to do something that was different, something that would push the boundaries of what we can do as a band. We wanted to challenge ourselves and our fans. We think 'No' is a powerful statement, but we know it's not for everyone."

The album is set to be released next month, and fans are eagerly awaiting its release. Only time will tell if 'No' will be as successful as their previous albums.

Lyric Filling Roles For New Season

By STEVE CHEST

A group of actors has been cast for the upcoming season of the Lyric Theater's Arts Festival. The cast includes renowned artists, including Broadway veterans and up-and-coming talents.

Some of the highlights of the upcoming season include a production of "La Bohème," a performance of "The Sound of Music," and a special concert featuring hit songs from the 1980s.

The Lyric's programming includes a variety of performances, from classical music to rock and roll. The theater is known for its commitment to providing high-quality entertainment to the community.

'Hair' Will Open Thursday In City

The Off-Broadway production of the musical "Hair" will open Thursday night at the Civic Arena. The show is a hit on the Broadway stage and has been praised for its music and message.

The production is performed by a talented cast of actors, all of whom have experience in musical theater. The music is by Galt MacDermot, and the book and lyrics are by James Rado and Geroge treadwell-Strother.

The musical tells the story of a group of young people in the 1960s who rebel against the establishment and fight for their rights. The show is a moving and thought-provoking piece of theater.

Cartoonists Find Jobs Are Fewer

By EASY KESTIN

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A growing number of cartoonists are finding it harder to find work. The once popular and lucrative profession of newspaper cartooning is now becoming increasingly difficult for many to sustain themselves financially. The downturn in the economy and the rise of digital media have taken a toll on the industry. Some cartoonists are turning to other forms of art or freelance work to make ends meet. Others are finding new outlets for their work through social media and independent publishing. The future of the profession remains uncertain as the industry continues to evolve.

Family Weekly's Baseball All-Stars: The Quiet Men Who Specialize in Winning
"Do you think I'm a sourpuss?"

Willie: I sure used to be a sourpuss. I had this constant complaint problem for years. I worried about it a lot. I tried all kinds of therapies, always looking for one that would be gentle and effective.

Woman: Let me see to what extent you know what's going on... Most psychiatrists agree that what we're talking about is the result of being passed over by a feeling of inferiority. So, perhaps you are just not used to being appreciated.

Willie: What are you talking about? I appreciated me.

Woman: Of course you did, Willie. You're not really inferior. You just haven't been properly appreciated. And before me, Sociology really works...

Willie: I need that first from scientists... For the first time in years. If you know how to start a conversation, Sociology could help you feel free. Take it from an ex-sourpuss.'

Jean Stapleton: The Canny Woman Behind TV's Edith Bunker

I just woke up from a dream with Jean Stapleton, also known as Edith Bunker, who had just turned me over after a wonderful performance. And before me, Sociology really works.

At Edith Bunker (a role that earned her an Emmy), she constantly advises "Sociology is a must." In her dream, it suddenly became clear to me what an important role I had played in the development of a new technique of speaking. And now I find that Sociology really works.

FAMILY WEEKLY'S ALL-STARS: Six Ballplayers Who Are Mainly Good for One Thing—Winning Games

By Bill Surface

When the All-Stars manager chose the years covered to fill every available batting position, the roster had to be chosen from the best available. A team of six in each position was selected, including outfielders. The roster included many of the best players in baseball from the 1930s and 1940s, including Mickey Mantle, Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, and many more.

Here are the six ballplayers who are mainly good for one thing—winning games:

BROOKS ROBINSON
Outfielder, Baltimore Orioles

Brooks Robinson had one of the best fielding arms in baseball and was a great second baseman. He was a key player for the Orioles, helping them win several World Series. Robinson was a great defensive player, but also had some offensive skills.

PETE ROSE
Outfielder, Cincinnati Reds

Pete Rose was known for his speed and his ability to get on base. He was a great hitter and had a lot of experience in the majors. Rose was a key player for the Reds, helping them win several division titles.

BILL WILLIAMS
Outfielder, Chicago Cubs

Bill Williams was known for his power and his ability to get on base. He was a great hitter and had a lot of experience in the majors. Williams was a key player for the Cubs, helping them win several division titles.

BILLY BURLEIGH
Outfielder, Chicago White Sox

Billy Burleigh was known for his speed and his ability to get on base. He was a great hitter and had a lot of experience in the majors. Burleigh was a key player for the White Sox, helping them win several division titles.

JOE DI MIGLIO
Outfielder, New York Yankees

Joe DiMaggio was known for his speed and his ability to get on base. He was a great hitter and had a lot of experience in the majors. DiMaggio was a key player for the Yankees, helping them win several division titles.

MICKY MANTLE
Outfielder, New York Yankees

Mickey Mantle was known for his speed and his ability to get on base. He was a great hitter and had a lot of experience in the majors. Mantle was a key player for the Yankees, helping them win several division titles.

These players were all great hitters and had a lot of experience in the majors. They were all key players for their respective teams, helping them win several division titles.

Special Advance Report:
Eight Fashion Looks That Are "Coming Back" in Paris

By Genevieve Antoine Dariaux, European fashion expert, Especially for Family Weekly

B elove is not the word "trendy" is coming back. It is the word "classic" that has been around for centuries. This season, however, it has taken on a new meaning. It is not just about the clothes, but about the overall look.

1. The classic black dress is a must. It can be worn with a simple white shirt or a matching jacket. It is versatile and elegant.
2. The classic blazer is another must-have. It can be worn with a skirt or trousers. It is timeless and professional.
3. The classic trench coat is perfect for the fall. It is warm and stylish. It can be worn with a pair of jeans or a skirt.
4. The classic ballet flat is a wardrobe staple. It is comfortable and chic.
5. The classic cardigan is perfect for layering. It is warm and versatile.
6. The classic button-down shirt is a wardrobe essential. It is classic and timeless.

For women who want to look ahead, the good word in Elegance is on the horizon.

Farm and Ranch Vacations: Why They Give You More for Your Money

By Landi and Sid Dennis

I

I have been away from home for a long time. With the fear of the unknown, I decided to take a trip to the countryside. The countryside was beautiful, with rolling hills and picturesque landscapes. The air was fresh and the sun was shining. It was a perfect day to explore the countryside and to relax.

The countryside was like a paradise. The fields were green and the flowers were in full bloom. The birds were singing and the children were playing. It was a peaceful and serene environment.

The countryside is a great place to spend time with family. It is a place where you can enjoy the beauty of nature and togetherness. It is a place where you can relax and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

The countryside is also a great place to learn about the local culture. The people there are friendly and welcoming. They are proud of their heritage and their traditions.

The countryside is a place where you can recharge your batteries. It is a place where you can forget about the pressures of modern life and to focus on what is important.

In conclusion, the countryside is a great place to visit. It is a place where you can enjoy the beauty of nature and the simplicity of life. It is a place where you can relax and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.
