50-Year Career Ends
Anthony Retiring

C.R. Anthony, 88, pioneer Oklahoma weatherman, yesterday stepped down from his position as chief of the National Weather Service as the head of the bureau. He had been president of the bureau of the National Weather Service for the past 50 years. Anthony is a former meteorologist at the National Weather Service and has been with the bureau since 1922. Anthony's contributions to meteorology have been widely recognized and he has received numerous awards for his work.

LBJ Released From Hospital

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (UPI) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson was released from U.S. Army Medical Center in San Antonio yesterday. He had been admitted to the hospital after suffering a heart attack in Charlottesville, Va., where he had been attending a convention.

Terrill Declares He’s ‘Tough’ Enough For Senate

Terrill, a candidate for the Senate, has declared that he is ‘tough’ enough for the position. He promises to bring a fresh perspective and strong leadership to the office.
Changes
In School Plan Asked
The OCU Student Senate has voted to introduce a new bill that would change the current school plan. The bill, if passed, would eliminate the traditional 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. school day and replace it with a four-day week schedule. The Senate believes this change would allow for a more efficient use of time and resources. The new bill has been met with mixed reactions from students and faculty members, with some expressing concerns about the impact on academic performance and others seeing it as a potential improvement. The Senate hopes to present the bill to the OCU administration for consideration in the near future.

Indian Heritage Shown Through Arts
The OCU Student Art Gallery has opened an exhibition showcasing Indian art and heritage. The exhibit, titled "-indian Heritage Through Art," features works created by indigenous artists from various regions of the world. The gallery is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will remain on display until the end of the semester. The exhibition is part of the OCU's commitment to promoting cultural awareness and understanding.

Bullfighters Toss In Capses
In a recent bullfighting event held at the OCU Rodeo Arena, bullfighters were seen tossing capses into the air. The event, which drew a large crowd, featured traditional Mexican bullfighting, with the bullfighters demonstrating their skills and courage. The capses, used to control the bull, were tossed as part of the performance, adding an element of excitement and spectacle to the event.

School Action Urged On Discrimination
The OCU Student Senate has called for action to address discrimination on campus. Senate members have expressed concern over incidents of bias and racism that have occurred recently. They are calling for the implementation of new policies and procedures to create a more inclusive and welcoming environment for all students. The Senate is urging the OCU administration to take immediate steps to address these issues and to work towards creating a campus that is welcoming and free from discrimination.

OU Law Day Features Clerk
The Oklahoma University School of Law celebrated Law Day with a special event featuring a guest speaker, Justice Clark. Justice Clark discussed the importance of the legal profession and the role of law schools in shaping the future of the legal industry. The event, which was well-attended, included a panel discussion with law school alumni and current students. The event concluded with a reception, where students and faculty members had the opportunity to network and engage in discussions about the future of the legal profession.

Demo Race Still Scrambled

The news of the Demo race's postponement and rescheduling is a welcome development.

The Oklahoma City Police Department announced the cancellation of the demo race due to security concerns.

The event was scheduled to take place on October 15, but due to operational concerns, it has been rescheduled to a later date.

The decision was made after a thorough review of the security measures in place and discussions with local authorities.

It is hoped that the rescheduling will allow for a successful and safe event.

The organizers expressed their appreciation for the understanding and support of the community.

The demo race is a popular event that brings together car enthusiasts and fans of the Oklahoma City Police Department.

State Editors Say

No Accounting for Taste

The statement made by a State Editor regarding taste is a point of discussion.

The editor expressed the view that there is no accounting for taste, as personal preferences can vary widely.

State Editor followed up by stating that the validity of the statement is subjective and depends on individual perspectives.

In response, another editor from a different state expressed a different opinion, stating that there is a certain level of accounting for taste, as it is based on cultural and societal norms.

The debate continues, with each editor providing their personal viewpoint.

Thoughts

A reader shared their thoughts on the matter, expressing that while taste is subjective, it is important to respect others' preferences and opinions.

The reader concluded by stating that everyone is entitled to their own taste and that it is up to the individuals involved to find a common ground.

The conversation highlights the diversity of opinions and perspectives within the community.

Putnam City Student Sets Sights On National Finals

The Putnam City High School student who has set her sights on competing in the National Science Olympiad has shown her commitment to science education by participating in the various science competitions. This week, she attended the State Science Olympiad, where she placed in the top 10. Her dedication to science has not gone unnoticed, as she has been invited to attend the National Science Olympiad. This is a significant achievement for her and the school, as it showcases the quality of Putnam City's science education.

Garden Wise

Iris Club Plans Show

The Garden Club of Putnam County will host an Iris Show on May 1st. The event will feature a variety of iris plants, both traditional and modern varieties. The show will be open to the public, and visitors are encouraged to come and appreciate the beauty of these blooming plants. The Garden Club is excited to share their passion for gardening with the community and look forward to a successful event.

Eye On The Garden

Recognition Dinner Slated

The annual Recognition Dinner for the Master Gardener Program will be held on May 10th. The evening will feature a dinner and awards ceremony to recognize the hard work and dedication of the Master Gardeners. Attendees will enjoy a delicious meal while honoring the volunteers who make the program a success. The event is open to the public, and reservations are required.

Oklahoma City Man Appointed To Top Enlisted Post In State Air Guard

Sgt. 1st Class D. E. Smith has been appointed as the 1st Sergeant of the Oklahoma Air National Guard. As the 1st Sergeant, he will serve as a leader and mentor to the enlisted personnel. His appointment is a testament to his service and dedication to the Air National Guard. The 1st Sergeant plays a crucial role in maintaining the discipline and morale of the unit, and Smith is well-suited for this position.
