No Nudes Bad News To Audience At 'Hair'

by STEVE DODSON
in the mirror

For the first time in the American cities and 13 countries, the musical "Hair" closed for the first time without its preachment being heard. The reason for the closure was a police order to remove the nude scenes.

The nude scenes are an integral part of "Hair" and, according to the producer, they were necessary to make the show a success. The police order was based on complaints from the audience. The producer said that without the nude scenes, the show would lose its impact and would not be able to continue.

Fearing the possibility of financial loss, the producer decided to comply with the police order and close the show.
