HHH Defeats Wallace, Leads McGovern
Jackson Drops Out Of Race

The Oklahoma Journal
Vol. 99, No. 105
May 28, 1964
30 Pages
This is the Thursday, May 28, 1964 edition.

Top Story

Jackson Drops Out Of Race

Jackson drops out of race after a two-night stay in Miami to confer with President Johnson. It is widely believed that Jackson had hoped for enough support in the Democratic primaries to win the nomination, and that his decision was influenced by the need to focus on winning the general election.

Main News

TULSA BANKER PAYS $50,000 RANSOM

Two Teen Campers Missing

Family Is Held 7 Hours

Mishap at the James

TULSA - Two Tennessee teenagers have been held for ransom in Tulsa by a man who, according to police, admitted to kidnapping the girls on the morning of May 27. The man, who said he was 28 years old, reportedly demanded $50,000 for the release of the girls.

FBI Race Crowded?

Inside News

New Areas Are Taken By Enemy

Five Killed In Mine Fire

McCarthy with 2 percent. Though he gave up his active campaign, Jackson said he supported McGovern in Detroit that he remained a candidate.

Feeling Run High At OCLA

The Paper That Tells Both Sides

Tongue-Biter

My job going down the drain. Community Relations Director Harry Lord left his post in the city to work for the Community Relations Director. He had been with the city for 28 years and was a respected professional.

Jacobson has had to stem the flow of votes to Wallace. He has announced that he will run as a Democrat in the general election. A major factor is the support of President Johnson, who has endorsed Wallace's candidacy.

In Washington, President Johnson has said that he will support Wallace in the general election. Johnson has also called for a halt to the war in Vietnam, and the President has been widely seen as a powerful force in the Democratic party.

Jacobson has had to deal with the anti-war movement and the support of Wallace in the general election. He has been under pressure to drop out of the race, but he has refused to do so.

In summary, Jacobson has had to face a difficult decision in the general election. He has the support of President Johnson, who has endorsed Wallace's candidacy. But he also has to deal with the anti-war movement and the support of Wallace in the general election. He has been under pressure to drop out of the race, but he has refused to do so.
Death Ends Hoover's Long, Colorful Career

Director Was An Institution

Millions Viewed Hoover As Ultimate In Law Enforcement

Hoover Active Until Death
Expert Says Conoco Used Phantom Costs

By FRED KSHOPER

The Oklahoman, 11 May 1977

The Conoco Corporation has now been found guilty of using phantom costs in an attempt to avoid paying royalties in Texas. The company was accused of claiming costs that did not actually exist in order to reduce its tax liability.

Kenneth Williams Dies; Funeral Set

By JR. JONES

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

Kenneth Williams, a noted Oklahoma lawyer, passed away last week. His funeral will be held this week. Details will be announced later.

The OKLAHOMAN, WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1977

Editorials

Senior Citizens’ Month

This is National Senior Citizen Month and it is important to remember that the elderly are an essential part of our society. They have given so much to our country and it is important to honor their contributions.

Politicoes Got The Word

The word is out that an important political battle is brewing in this state. The battle is over the issue of education and it looks like it will be a hard-fought campaign.

Heart Patient Sex

A heart patient was found to be having sex with his wife while on his medication. This is a significant development in the medical field.

State Editors Say

The Daily Oklahoman, 11 May 1977

The editors of the Daily Oklahoman have spoken out on a variety of topics in this week’s edition. They have discussed the importance of education, the need for better health care, and the need for stronger leadership in our government.

Bill Thorp

Way Out West

In Texas

Bill Thorp, a well-known business executive, has moved to Texas. He hopes to take advantage of the state’s economic opportunities.

The PEOPLE’S Voice

Togetherness

Peace Corps

Bob Considine

Mighty Row Was The Ladies Club

The Ladies Club was a significant organization during the Civil War. It worked to support the Union and help soldiers.

Tom Braden

Going After Hubert

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

Tom Braden, a former Oklahoma State Senator, is running for the US Senate. He is a strong advocate for the people of Oklahoma.

Hall Lauds FBI Chief

By BILL HAYES

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

The FBI Director has been praised by both law enforcement officials and politicians. He has been credited with helping to solve some of the country’s most significant cases.

Ex-Agents Note Loss

By BILL HAYES

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

Former FBI agents have spoken out about the loss of significant information. They believe that the agency needs to do more to protect this information.

Road Panel Unveils Massive Interchange

By JR. JONES

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

A massive road interchange is being unveiled. It is expected to help with traffic flow in the area.

City Action On Lawsuit Draws Fire

By JR. JONES

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

A lawsuit has been filed against a city. The city is being criticized for its response to the lawsuit.

Edward Schoenhuber Quits In Protest

Edward Schoenhuber, a former state senator, has quit in protest. He believes that the state’s government is not doing enough for its citizens.

Marty Marked

The Oklahoma Journal, 11 May 1977

Marty Marked, a well-known political figure, has marked his retirement. He has been a significant leader in the state’s political scene.
Rubin Attacks Hoover

Cowboys Drub Tulsans Twice

89ers Deal 10-3 Shelling By Iowa

Sears Every Coldspot Freezer on SALE!
SAVE $10 to $60
Prices Good Thru Saturday

Are You Tired of High Food Prices?

Invitation Still Open For Sunday

Walser Not Pleased With Winning Form

Bruins Nudge Rangers, 2-1

Pepitone Quits Pro Baseball
Mum Witness Fears Inmates

Mike Bradley White, II, made a huge strike yesterday, just 12 miles from his home. He was convicted of grand larceny in the Times Ford
deal. He andUDGE
He inherited a sled at the market and spent with $70 in a paper sack.

Next, he came to the CX
C taxi. He asked him, "You asked me to stay at the store. I had inside the store watching out and
I had to drive like hell."

The next morning, Caller went out of his house. He ran past the caller at a slow speed. He ran to the Caller and asked, "You asked me to stay at the store. I had inside the store watching out and
I had to drive like hell."

The Caller was taken to the police station. He discussed the call. He told the Caller that he was riding with a companion.

The Caller was taken to the police station. He discussed the call. He told the Caller that he was riding with a companion.

NOW.
THE FIRST DC-10 FLIES NONSTOP FROM OKLAHOMA CITY TO LOS ANGELES.

Try our spacious new DC-10 coach lounge. Ask your travel agent for the LuxuryLiner.

The new DC-10 LuxuryLiner leaves at 10:15 A.M. nonstop to Los Angeles.

American Airlines
Our passengers get the best of everything.