McGovern Forces Expect Payoff In County

By DAVID CHAMBER

Oklahoma County must be the place where George McGovern's campaign takes root. During last weekend's Democratic party convention in Columbus, Ohio, a McGovern supporter was only a phone call or a postcard away from winning over most of the delegates. The phone call or postcard came from James McClear, a McGovern supporter who lives in Oklahoma City.

McClear said he had talked to several of the delegates and that they were impressed with McGovern's speeches and platforms. He said he was confident that McGovern would win the nomination on the first ballot.

McClear also said that he was working with several other McGovern supporters in Oklahoma to make sure that the state delegation is supportive of McGovern.

OEO Medical Aid Report Denied

A local television station reported Friday that someone was burglarized at the OEO Medical Aid office in Oklahoma City. The burglar reportedly took $10,000 worth of equipment and $2,000 worth of cash.

The OEO Medical Aid office is located at 1234 Main Street. The station said that the burglar entered the office through a rear window and made off with the equipment and cash.

Panel Urges Vote On Tax

By ROGER FLETCHER

A recent comprehensive study by the National Tax Association has urged Congress to enact a tax reform law that would reduce the federal deficit and stimulate economic growth.

The study, conducted by 40 economists, found that the current tax system is inefficient and that it is a major barrier to economic growth.

The report, released by the National Tax Association, recommends that Congress enact a comprehensive tax reform law that would lower tax rates, simplify the tax code, and reduce the federal deficit.
