State Republicans Elect Delegates

City To Bid On '76 GOP Convention

BY DAVID CRAGHILL

Oklahoma City is hoping to become the site of the 1976 Republican National Convention. The city, in an effort to attract the convention, has appointed a special committee to study the possibility of hosting the convention. The committee, chaired by the mayor of Oklahoma City, is composed of local business leaders and community activists.

In addition to hosting the convention, Oklahoma City is also hoping to attract new businesses and residents to the city. The city has announced plans to improve its infrastructure and provide more affordable housing to attract new residents.

OBU Play Will Open Thursday

AUGUSTA - The OBU Play, "The White Monkey," will be held Thursday night at 8 p.m. in the OBU University Center Theatre.

The play, directed by Dr. James M. Johnson, is a play about the struggle for power and control in a Japanese family. It is a reflection of the social and political tensions of the time, and it explores themes of family, loyalty, and the pressures of tradition.

The play features a cast of OBU students, including returning actors and new faces. This is the first production in the OBU Theatre Department's 2023-2024 season, which promises a diverse range of performances throughout the year.

(For more information, contact the OBU Theatre Department at 405-585-5555.)

Angles And Lines

A new exhibition, "Angles And Lines," opens at the National Museum of Art this Friday. The exhibition features works by contemporary artists from around the world, showcasing their unique interpretations of geometric forms and compositions.

The exhibition runs from Friday, May 5, to Sunday, July 3. Admission is free and open to the public.

Print, Drawing Show Well Worth Seeing

BY STEVE DAVACK

To the current "Korea: The Great Exhibition," a new show of works by American artists is currently on display at the National Museum of Fine Arts.

The show, titled "Prints And Drawings," features works by some of the most prominent artists of the 20th century, including Andy Warhol, Roy Lichtenstein, Jasper Johns, and Jasper Johns.

The exhibition runs from May 5 to July 3. Admission is free and open to the public.

Composition Competition Set Friday

The annual Composition Competition, sponsored by the University of Oklahoma School of Music, will be held on Friday, May 5, at 7 p.m. in the University Center Theatre.

The competition is open to all students enrolled at the University of Oklahoma, and it offers a chance for emerging composers to showcase their work. The winner will receive a cash prize of $1,000 and the opportunity to have their composition performed by the University of Oklahoma Symphony Orchestra.

For more information, contact the Department of Music at 405-325-5165.
Organ Concert Slated

Organist Barbara Ann Gray will present the current series of the Young Artist Series sponsored by the Oklahoma City Symphony Society and the Oklahoma Arts and Humanities Council. The series features music by a variety of composers, including Bach, Beethoven, and Chopin. The concerts are held at 7 p.m. at the Oklahoma City Arts and Humanities Building. A former member of the Faison Art Group and a frequent performer at the local concert halls, Gray has received critical acclaim for her interpretations of the works of Bach, Beethoven, and Chopin. The concerts are free and open to the public.

22 Artists Due

Honors Sunday

The Oklahoma Arts and Humanities Council will honor 22 artists for their contributions to the arts in Oklahoma. The awards will be presented during a ceremony at the Oklahoma City Arts and Humanities Building. The honorees include painters, sculptors, photographers, and musicians. The ceremony is open to the public and will feature performances by local artists. For more information, contact the Oklahoma Arts and Humanities Council at 405-521-3700.

Shoot Out

Gary Green, a local musician, will be honoring the memory of Billie Holiday with a tribute concert. Green will perform songs from Holiday's iconic album, "The Lady Is a Tramp." The concert will be held at the Oklahoma City Arts and Humanities Building. Admission is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Green at 405-521-3700.
Van Morrison Concert
SCHEDULED FOR MAY 14

Van Morrison is another of those recording artists who has received his own share of the glory in recent years. He is from the British Isles, yet he is one of the few who has made his mark in the American pop scene. His first album, "Astral Weeks," was released in 1968 and has since become a classic.

The concert will be held on May 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Civic Center, and tickets will be available at the door. For more information, call the box office at 123-4567.

Political Satire Hits Broadway

By ALAN MALLACH

WASHINGTON — and now we have Meryl Streep in the role of a lifetime. The actress has been nominated for an Academy Award for her performance in "The Iron Lady," which is set for release this fall.

Streep has been lauded for her portrayal of Margaret Thatcher, the former Prime Minister of Great Britain. The role has been described as a masterclass in acting, and Streep's performance is expected to earn her a well-deserved Oscar.

In the end, it's the success of the film, which has already won several awards, that will determine whether Streep's performance is truly a work of art or simply a case of Hollywood's love affair with British royalty.
Tulsa Building Thriving Music Trade

BY GREG R. DODSON
TULSA (AP) - Tulsa's music business is enjoying a boom in recent years, thanks to a combination of factors including the growth of the city's population, the influx of new residents, and the increasing popularity of local music venues.

Artists and bands are flocking to Tulsa to perform, and the city's music scene is becoming more diverse and vibrant. Local venues are offering a range of music genres, from rock and roll to country and blues, attracting both local and national acts.

One of the key players in the music scene is the Tulsa Music Commission, which works to promote and support local musicians. The commission has also been instrumental in securing funding for music-related projects, such as the Tulsa Arts District, which features a variety of music venues and performance spaces.

Another factor contributing to the growth of Tulsa's music scene is the city's proximity to other major music centers, such as Dallas and Oklahoma City. This has allowed Tulsa to attract musicians and bands who are looking for a unique and vibrant music scene.

As a result of these efforts, Tulsa's music scene is thriving, with a growing number of musicians and music lovers flocking to the city for performances and events.
'Truth' Finally Told About Barbra Streisand, She's Really A Pussycat

By DAN KNAPP

Barbra Streisand now in a new, unmasked role, if you can believe it. For months, Streisand fans have been eagerly awaiting the release of her latest film, "Truth or Dare," in anticipation of seeing Streisand at her best. But even the die-hard Streisand fans were taken by surprise when they saw the final product.

Streisand plays a hard-boiled, no-nonsense reporter who is assigned to investigate the truth about a notorious Hollywood starlet, played by None Other than First Lady Hillary Clinton. The movie opens with Streisand in a dark, shadowy room, lit only by a flickering candle, as she sits down to read a incriminating letter that she has received.

"I'm not going to pull any punches," Streisand says, as she begins to write the story of First Lady Clinton's secret life. "I'm going to tell you everything. And I'm not going to let anyone stop me."

As Streisand delves deeper into the story, she discovers shocking truths about Clinton's past, including her secret love affair with Barbra Streisand. The story becomes even more explosive when Streisand's investigation leads her to the ruins of the White House, where she finds a hidden room filled with incriminating evidence.

"This is not a story about a politician," Streisand says, as she stands over the evidence. "This is a story about a woman. And I'm going to tell you everything."

The movie ends with Streisand on the front page of the New York Times, her story making headlines across the country.

"Truth or Dare" is a landmark film in Streisand's career, and a reflection of the changing times in Hollywood. Streisand's ability to tell a hard-hitting story has earned her the respect of her peers, and has cemented her place as one of the greatest reporters of our time.

And it all started with a simple letter. But Streisand knows that the truth is always worth fighting for, and she will continue to uncover the stories that need to be told, no matter the cost.
U.S. Concentration Camps Examined

It has been reported that thousands of Japanese Americans were interned in camps throughout the United States during World War II. This practice sparked controversy and raised questions about civil liberties and the treatment of minority groups. The government argued that internment was necessary for national security, while critics claimed it was a violation of constitutional rights.

Festival Attendance Up By 50 Percent

by Steve Tracy

With Oklahoma City's annual festival day attendance up 50 percent this year over last year, it's safe to say the weather was certainly one of the contributing factors. Also, the fact that it was a Sunday, with the added element of free admission, likely played a role.

The weather was quite variable this year, with temperatures ranging from one extreme to the other. While some days were quite warm, others were quite cold. However, overall, the weather was favorable and contributed to the large attendance.

In fact, the weather was so good that there were reports of people setting up campers and tents in the area, taking advantage of the pleasant weather. This, of course, added to the festive atmosphere and contributed to the high attendance.

In conclusion, it's clear that the weather played a significant role in the increase in festival attendance this year. With favorable conditions and the added element of free admission, it's no wonder that so many people showed up to enjoy the festivities. It's a testament to the fun and enjoyment that festival days provide.
Comic Art Academy Catalogues Art Form

By CHARLES ZEILINGER

PARKS - The two-story, modern building of the Park Arts Center is the setting for the Park Art Academy. The Academy of Fine Arts at the center of the city is a small school with about 200 students. It is one of the most respected art schools in the country.

The school was founded in 1923 by Charles Ziegler, now a professor at the University of California, Los Angeles. Ziegler, who has taught at the school for more than 20 years, says he has been inspired by the art of the past.

"It's a wonderful place to learn," Ziegler said. "The students are encouraged to express themselves through art. It's a great place to learn about the art of the past and the art of the present."

Ask Them Yourself

FOR ANDY GRIFFITH

Is it true that you are often confused with Andy Williams, or is that a publicity gag?—Doug Moore, Boston, Mass.

It is true. I don't think of myself as being confused with Andy Williams, but it is true that a lot of people do. I don't mind it, though. It's just that I find it funny that people will say, "Oh, you're Andy Williams." I don't mind it, though. It's just that I find it funny that people will say, "Oh, you're Andy Williams."

FOR WILLIAM SARGENT, baseball star

Why do you feel that you instead of Joe Torre were the National League's most valuable player in 1973?—B. Sargent, Chicago, Ill.

Because I did everything I set out to do, and we, the Boston Red Sox, won the World Series. I'm not trying to take anything away from Joe, but in 1970, the year before it was mine, I think the manager, John McNamara, deserves a lot of credit for that. Everybody says I played better than he did, but I'm not one to go out and claim that. I just try to do my best.

FOR DORIS DAY

It seems that in most of your shows you play a widow. Why is that?—Dorothy Quade, Peoria, Ill.

I think it's because I think it's a good role for me. I enjoy playing roles where I can be a mother figure to the younger actors. It's a good way to keep acting when I'm too old for most other roles.

FOR EDWARD MURPHY, actor

I can't find anything to say about the question of having a woman in your next movie if you get the Democratic nomination. Would you accept a woman?—E. M. Moser, Austin, Texas.

Of course! I would! There is no reason for holding women in a lesser position in society. Women should be accepted in the same way as men, in every aspect of life.

FOR JAMES CAIN, author

I have a question about the movie "The Godfather." Martin Scorsese said he wanted and got a rejection before he wrote "The Godfather." Did you ever try to sell a script for a film or a novel that was rejected before it was successful?—A. McIsaac, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Yes, I have. I wrote a novel called "The Godfather," and it was rejected by several publishers before it was finally accepted by a publisher. It turned out to be a huge success, and I'm glad I didn't give up on it.

FOR ROBERT MOORE, actor

What is the greatest miracle in the American crime scene?—Vera Ross, San Bernardino, Calif.

I think the greatest miracle is that we are able to have a legal system that is so efficient. It is amazing that we are able to catch criminals and bring them to justice. It is a miracle that we are able to have a system that works.

FOR ROBERT MCMAHON, Commissioner of Commerce, New York City

What is the greatest miracle in the American crime scene?—M. O'Brien, New York, N.Y.

I think the greatest miracle is that we are able to have a legal system that is so efficient. It is amazing that we are able to catch criminals and bring them to justice. It is a miracle that we are able to have a system that works.

FOR SALLY Field, actress

The two terms "put some more flavor in your life" and "smoke with our brands" are similar. Can you provide more information about these brands and their connection to flavor?—S. Field, New York, N.Y.

Our brands are designed to bring extra flavor and depth to your life. They are crafted to enhance your experience and add a touch of luxury to your daily routine. Each brand is carefully selected based on its unique character and flavor profile. Whether you're looking for a quick pick-me-up or a sophisticated evening, our brands are your perfect companions.

Amy Vanderbilt:

“Celebrities are all expected to be very rich. If they try to be thrifty, they are labeled penurious or even eccentric. People are sure I have a chauffeur-driven car and when they discover that I have to manage on a small income, they think this means I am not a success. I live in a small apartment on Park Avenue, and my husband and I manage our household very economically.”

The Joys and Pains Of Being a Celebrity

By Amy Vanderbilt, author of “Amy Vanderbilt’s Etiquette,” and “Amy Vanderbilt’s Complete Cookbook”

“Celebrity is not only a matter of being famous, but a way of life. It means not only being recognized in public, but also in private. It means being treated differently by people, even strangers who may not even know your name. It means being photographed without your permission, and having your every move followed by the media.”

There are many more things about being a celebrity. I have to be careful about my appearance, my clothes, my behavior. I have to be careful about what I say and do. I have to be careful about everything.”

The photo was taken at a party last night. It was a success, but I was worn out. I have to be on my best behavior all the time. I have to be on my best behavior even when I’m alone. I have to be on my best behavior even when I’m sleeping.”

Amy Vanderbilt is a socialite and author of several books on etiquette. She is known for her wisdom and guidance on how to behave in social situations. Her books have been widely read and admired, and she is often sought out for her advice on etiquette and social graces.

The Doctor Lets You In

The Magic is in Your Hand!

Do you know how many men can get "THE MUGG"? This parasitic skin bug comes in the fall and in the spring, and in the winter it hides away. It is most active in the fall and spring. It can cause discomfort and itching in some people. The best cure is to use a Spectrum/72 insecticidal spray. This spray is made to kill the bugs and remove the mites. The spray is safe for use around children and pets. It is recommended to use at least every 2 weeks to prevent the bugs from returning.

The Diet Watch

Of Pizzas, Pretzels
And Peanuts

Know your "fat" foods it's so much fun eating the following:
1. Cheesecake. This is a high-calorie treat but can be enjoyed in moderation.
2. Pizza. Choose thin crust over a regular crust and be mindful of the toppings you choose.
3. Pretzels. Enjoy a handful as a healthy snack.
4. Peanuts. These are a good source of protein and healthy fats.

The following foods can add up to a high calorie count:
5. Cakes and Pastries. These are high in sugar and fat.
6. Candy. Choose sugar-free or sugar-reduced options.
7. Chips. Choose baked or air-popped varieties over fried ones.

Sports Mini-Profile

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

His Ambition: To be the best

Higher than Baseball

Palm Trees are to Roberto Clemente what baseball is to most baseball enthusiasts. The Puerto Rican born baseball player is the highest paid on the Pittsburgh Pirates. He is a star in his own right. The Pirates have recently traded for him. The trade is expected to help the team win the World Series. Clemente is a hard worker and is known for his dedication to the sport. The Pittsburgh Pirates are looking forward to having him play for them.

How Your Hearing Can Affect Your Personality - And Vice Versa

TRUE OR FALSE: Most people can hear better with their right ears. (Five minutes)

Hearing has been described as one of the most essential ways in which we experience the world. Psychologists agree that what we hear forms the processor of sounds all around us of obvious importance in the development of our personality. To see whether or not this is true, take our simple quiz.

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. Women hear sharper, and pick up a lot of sounds and fragments of conversation that men might otherwise miss.
2. How well you hear depends on your personality type.
3. You can hear better when you're asleep.
4. Most people hear better with their right ears.
5. You don't hear with your ears, but you may soon be able to hear through your teeth.

ANSWERS

1. True. Studies at Pennsylvania State University, where psychologists experimented on a group of 200 men and women, showed that "women have the ability to hear better than men.
2. False. What you hear depends on your own personality type.
3. True. When you are asleep, you can hear better.
4. True. Most people hear better with their right ears.
5. False. A study done at the University of California showed that there is not a single, clear-cut sound that will go through your teeth.

How to collect up to $10,000 in extended benefits on top of your present health insurance

Now, consider what you are hearing your doctor currently has a new offer to help many "extended care" costs that other hospital insurance may not cover at all.

Here’s how to collect up to $10,000 in extended benefits on top of your present health insurance:

1. Put your eyes on a moment.
2. Imagine yourself in this kind of "extended care" situation:
   - You are in the hospital for 10 days and you are losing your hearing.
   - Your doctor is constantly talking about "extended care".
   - Your doctor is talking about "extended care".

Now, if you are vision: "Will my hospital insurance be enough?"

If you are faced with a long period of costly treatment and convalescence, and you also have only a "regular" hospital insurance policy, your extra "extended care" will pay for your loss of hearing.

Don't let a major, catastrophic illness or accident wipe you out financially! Read these facts now about...

Does More Than Help Shrink Swelling Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Due To Infection
Also Gives Prompt, Temporary Relief in Many Cases from Pain and Itching in Such Tissues.

When hemorrhoidal tissues swell, become inflamed or tend to bleed, the tissues may cause great discomfort. Hemorrhoidal tissues may be painful and may cause bleeding. To minimize discomfort and to promote healing, many people use a hemorrhoidal cream, which is a cream that contains a medicated substance. This medicated substance helps to reduce the swelling and irritation of the hemorrhoidal tissues. Hemorrhoidal creams are available over-the-counter and can be purchased at most pharmacies. Some hemorrhoidal creams contain lidocaine, which is a numbing agent, to help reduce pain. Others contain astringent ingredients, such as witch hazel, to help reduce bleeding. Always consult with a healthcare provider before using any hemorrhoidal cream, as they may interact with other medications or medical conditions. The best treatment is to consult a doctor or healthcare provider for proper diagnosis and treatment.
