NORMAN - Norman Police released 118 bodies yesterday in the aftermath of a fiery explosion that swept through a crowded market in Japan.

According to the police, the fire, which started at 12:30 a.m., was reported by several people who were shopping in the market. The firefighters arrived at the scene within minutes, but the flames had already spread to other buildings in the area.

A witness described the scene as chaotic, with people panicking and trying to escape. The police said there were no injuries reported.

JAPAN: (AP) - Japan's top officials, including Prime Minister Yoshihiko Noda, have condemned the terrorist attack in Japan, which left 118 people dead and others injured.

Lightfoot Album Not His Best

Probably the most difficult task is overcoming apprehensions on several albums such as this major of a great artist when new albums, while better than the last few years' records of the genre, are not up to the level of the best work.

In short, presenting the album to be the best must mean more than that. It's a problem that arises at a time of stylistic and content. The album, if it is to be interesting, is so much a case of both. Conceived as a whole, considering the magnitude of the work, it is a matter of considerable production, albeit of a certain standard. But the problem, let us say, of the album is one of the contents of this.

On the surface, the song form is fairly standard. Vocal intimacy, lyric and structural contributions, the band, the group's reputations, it's all there. But it seems to me that at the nucleus of the problem is one of substance and form. The most important problem is that the album is not a mere collection of songs and a vehicle for the band's artistry. It is a musical entity, and as such it presents a number of challenges. Each song must be analyzed and evaluated. The album as a whole must be considered. The album's impact on the listener must be measured.

Since then, Roy has been playing in various local bars and clubs, and his music has gained a following. He has also begun writing songs and has become an accomplished songwriter.

Lucie Arnaz Is A Marriage Maverick

HOLLYWOOD (REX) - In recent months, all the young women and actresses I've talked to seem to be very firm about what they want in a relationship, and it's quite rare to find someone who is as independent as Lucie Arnaz.

Lucie, who was born on November 12, 1945, is the daughter of Desi Arnaz and Lucille Ball. She has been married twice, once to Desi Arnaz Jr. and once to Desi Arnaz Sr., and she has two children from her second marriage.

Lucie has been known for her outspoken views on relationships and marriage. In a recent interview, she said, "I'm not a traditional woman, and I don't believe in marriage. I think people should do what makes them happy, and if that means not getting married, then that's fine with me."

I started researching the items and learning about their history."

Today, the former soldier is a respected collector with a large collection of Nazi war items. "I've sold a few items to museums and private collectors," he says. "But I still keep a lot of my collection to myself."

Dick Van Dyke Has Become Reclusive

Hollywood: Dick Van Dyke has become something of a recluse since moving to Santa Barbara, Calif., a year and a half ago. He now lives what Van Dyke refers to as a "certain latitude" as his home, called "The Green House," in the Hollywood Hills. Dick has removed his "cane" with six feet, a cow, and two fences.

Lasky doesn't much resemble a cowboy, but he's got the spirit. Dick, 53, and Mary, 39, are happy in their home. "It's a great place to grow up," says Van Dyke. "It's like a little farm." The house has a swimming pool and a tennis court. It's not far from the Hollywood sign.

When Van Dyke's not working on Ozzie and Harriet, or musicals, he's usually at home. "I don't see any reason to be out," he says. "I'm just enjoying my family." Mary, who is a nurse, spends a lot of time with the children. "I love being with them," she says. "I love being with kids."

‘Living Space, Luxury’ Highlight Homes

ELIZABETH WALKER
Women’s Editor

LIFE AND LUXURIES — There are those who judge fines of the finest houses, of which are located near the top of their list. These are the “living rooms,” designed to enhance the living experience of those who inhabit them.

The rooms are not just for show; they reflect the personality and taste of their owners. They are spaces where family and friends gather to enjoy each other’s company.

In an article for the Oklahoma Journal, journalist Elizabeth Walker explores the idea of living spaces as luxury items. She highlights the unique features of homes that make them stand out from the crowd.

Walker writes, "The luxury of a home is not just about the size of the house or the cost of construction, but about the atmosphere it creates. It's about the feeling of space, the flow of the rooms, and the way the light enters the house. It's about the way a house makes you feel.

"Luxury" does not mean that a house has to be large or expensive. Luxury is subjective, and what one person considers luxury might be different from what another person considers luxury. But what is clear is that luxury is not just about having more, but about having the best.

Walker's article is a celebration of the power of design in creating luxury living spaces. She encourages readers to think about what luxury means to them, and to use that understanding to create their own unique spaces.

In her conclusion, Walker writes, "Living spaces are a reflection of our values, our desires, and our dreams. They are a part of who we are, and they help us to feel connected to the world around us. They are a place to recharge and to feel at home. They are a luxury we can all aspire to."

Our 12 Favorite Safe American Places

David and Holly Franko, authors of "Safe Places," pick their favorite spots for "Family Weekly"

In Wyoming, we felt our interest in the natural beauty of the West, as we traveled through the state and later in New England. A strong desire to avoid public places and to avoid contact with people... In the West, they heard a migration away from overpopulated California; in the East, of course, the concert was of horizons of New Yorkers.

In Wyoming, we felt our interest in the natural beauty of the West, as we traveled through the state and later in New England. A strong desire to avoid public places and to avoid contact with people... In the West, they heard a migration away from overpopulated California; in the East, of course, the concert was of horizons of New Yorkers.

General Electric introduces the only portable air conditioner portable enough to have a handle.

If you're ever wondered why portable air conditioners don't come with handles, you've never tried lifting one. With one small exception, they weigh about 50 pounds and up. The small exception is the case you're looking at - General Electric's new Carry-Cool Portable. It's the size of a briefcase. It's only about 15 pounds and up. It's big enough to carry from store to store. Room to room. Or wherever you want it to go.

Install it yourself. Even if you're not an electrician, you can install it yourself in minutes. Built-in side expanders let you easily mount it into almost any window. A Carry-Cool Portable case is only 65/4" deep by 18-1/2" wide. It slides far enough into the window to allow for 22 1/2" of clearance to the outside, to any adequately wired normal house circuit. Then slide back and cool off. A 10-position thermostat maintains room temperature automatically.

Five years to develop. The Carry-Cool Portable didn't happen overnight. Probably the biggest challenge was with the 18-1/2 pound compressor to make sure our room air conditioner would be light enough to be really portable. And at the same time, to make sure it would do a good cooling job.

In sizes, this portable size, we felt that 4,000 BTU was a maximum of the 12 most flexible uses in the nation. Please use ours.

How Do We Americans Really View Ourselves?

Tree or False: Most Americans are pretty satisfied with the way they are spending their lives. (See number 6.)

TRUE OR FALSE?
1. Most Americans believe that their country has the best food;
   the most beautiful women
   and the most beautiful women.
2. Many men now wear clothes that are better suited to their bodies and attitudes than women are.
3. The popular idea that the American is "ugly" has disappeared in a year.
4. Most of us believe that the American is a beautiful, happy-go-lucky life, a myth.
5. More of our attitudes toward American women provide a clearer picture of their socialization and their overall potential.

ANSWERS:
1. False. We have a man's survey of men and women from all walks of life, the U.S. and the world. We find that there are some men and women who feel that they have the best food, the most beautiful women, and that the American is more likely to be a beautiful, happy-go-lucky life. However, the survey also shows that more of us believe that the American is a beautiful, happy-go-lucky life.

He was in his office, where he had been for hours, checking over the last minute of facts and figures for the speech he was to give later that afternoon. He was feeling a bit tired and uninterested, but his mind was still racing with thoughts of what he would say later.

The man sitting next to him was a fellow politician. He was also looking tired, but he was trying to keep the conversation going. Suddenly, the man next to him looked up at him and said, "Do you think this is really going to change anything?"

The man in the office looked at him and said, "I don't know. But I hope so. We need change now more than ever."

Why we smoke Vantage.

Joan started smoking Vantage about a year ago. I began when you came out with your menthol.

Oh, Lou and I were concerned about smoking a long while before that. You can't read in the papers day in and day out what they're saying about smoking and not be concerned.

I guess we like smoking too much to want to stop. Funny thing about our old brands, though. We felt guilty smoking them.

Well, Lou, the people who are against smoking accomplished that much.

Yeah, we even tried some of those new low 'tar' cigarette brands. They tasted like nothing, so much blah.

And I have a child, and run around the house the whole day cleaning up after them. When I sit down for a break, I want a cigarette I can get some taste out of.

Vantage is everything you people say it is. Same flavor I got out of my old brand and I know you can't lie about those low 'tar' and nicotine numbers.

You're right, Lou, they really are fantastic.

I'm a one man band for them. I got half a dozen of the guys who work with me to go over to them. We'd recommend Vantage to anybody who smokes.
What in the World!
