Hall Vows No Cut In Center Emergency Care

Gov. David Hall said yesterday that his administration will look for ways to hold the line on health care costs, but he added that any cuts in Medicaid and other health programs would be "painful" and "difficult." Hall made the pledge in a speech to the Oklahoma State Chamber of Commerce in Oklahoma City. The governor, a member of the National Governors Association, said he would work with the state legislature to find ways to reduce the costs of Medicaid and other health programs.
