Saigon Units Hit Behind Lines

SAIGON, July 21 — Viet Cong military leaders opened the battle from behind a line of defense that began in the north and extended toward the south. The battle commenced with an attack on the American Embassy in Saigon.

Ikemoto, a Japanese officer, has been among those killed in the battle. Ikemoto was promoted to brigadier general in the Vietnam War.

The battle has been called the Battle of Saigon, and it is the first major offensive by the Viet Cong in the war.

3 Deaths Confessed

Three of those persons have been identified as members of the Japanese Army. The identity of the third person has not been released.

The three deaths were discovered in a house in the Saigon area.

The victims were identified as Ikemoto, a former member of the Japanese Army, and two other members of the Viet Cong.

The battle has been described as a major turning point in the Vietnam War.

The Viet Cong have been fighting for over a year to gain control of the South Vietnamese government.

GOSSIP

by Robbin Adams Sloan

Q In the Oklahoma City County Courthouse, a woman in a black suit and red dress was spotted. She was seen talking on her cell phone while walking through the building. Is this a common sight in the courthouse?

A In the Oklahoma City County Courthouse, it is not unusual to see people on their cell phones. The courthouse is a busy place, and many people use their phones while waiting for their cases to be called.

Q You mentioned that there is a new restaurant opening in the Bricktown area. Can you provide more information?

A Yes, there is a new restaurant opening in the Bricktown area. It is called "The Brickyard" and is scheduled to open in the next few weeks. It will offer a variety of dishes, including burgers, sandwiches, and salads.

Q What is the latest news on the construction progress of the new Exhibit Hall in the Myriad Botanical Gardens?

A The construction progress of the new Exhibit Hall in the Myriad Botanical Gardens is proceeding as planned. The hall is scheduled to open in the spring of 2023.

Q The OKC Barons are playing well this season. How is the team doing so far?

A The OKC Barons are doing well this season. They have a record of 25-10-4 and are currently in second place in their division.

State Work Total Rises

State work totals for 1973 are up 4.5 percent over the previous year, according to the Oklahoma Employment Security Commission. Total work hours, which include work done at home and work for other persons, rose to 4.5 percent or more.

Dentist Voices Tot Park Opposition

A Dentist from the Oklahoma City area expresses opposition to the expansion of a local park, stating that it would have a negative impact on the community. The dentist, who is a long-time resident of the area, claims that the expansion would lead to increased traffic and noise levels, and would have a negative impact on the quality of life in the area.

PLC Creditor Bids Rejected

A A bid for the sale of the Oklahoma City-based PLC Creditor was rejected by the court, as the offer did not meet the requirements set forth in the bankruptcy proceedings. The company, which is in bankruptcy, has been trying to sell the assets for the past several years, but has been unable to find a buyer willing to pay the required price.

Protesters' Trial Slated

A A trial is scheduled to begin in the case of the protesters who were arrested during a demonstration at the state capitol. The protesters are charged with trespassing and disorderly conduct, and are seeking a dismissal of the charges on the grounds that the demonstration was protected by the First Amendment.

Dr. Earl B. Byrd, president of the American Dental Association, said that the expansion would have a negative impact on the community. He called for the expansion to be halted, as it would have a negative impact on the quality of life in the area.

Stamps Recall Events

A A stamp featuring the Oklahoma City tornadoes of 1995 was recalled due to a printing error. The stamp was issued in 1995, but was withdrawn from circulation after it was discovered that the design was incorrect.
