Bumbling Bandit Flees With Loot

By ROYCE BARKER

A bumbling bandit who failed to make off with any money in his latest attempt to rob a store has been captured by police.

The bandit, who wore a balaclava and a mask, entered the store and demanded cash.

Police arrived and arrested the bandit after a brief chase.

The bandit, who was wearing a mask, was taken into custody.

The attempted robbery was the third in the city this week.

Nixon Mobbed By Cheering Poles

By RAYMOND WHITE

President Nixon was mobbed by cheering poles as he arrived at the White House.

The president, who was accompanied by his family, was greeted with shouts of "Four more years!", "We love you, Mr. President!", and "You're our man!"

The crowd, which included many children, was estimated to be in the thousands.

Fortune' Efforts Aid Ex-Cons

By Larry Gann

In a city of fortune, a group of former felons are finding a new lease on life. The "Fortune" newspaper has started a job training program to help these ex-cons get back on their feet. The program includes skills training, mentoring, and employment opportunities. Many former felons have found success and are grateful for the opportunity to turn their lives around. The program is in its early stages, but already showing promising results.

Hubert Pullout Urged If California Is Lost

The situation in California is dire, and Hubert Pullout is calling for urgent action. If California is lost, it will have a significant impact on the country. Pullout is urging all Americans to come together and support California in any way possible. He also calls for a national strategy to prevent other states from falling into the same situation.

State Official Says EPA Ruling Minor

The ruling by the EPA on Oklahoma's pollution control standards is minor, according to the state official. This means that Oklahoma will continue to have higher pollution standards than the federal requirements. The state official says that this is a positive step and will help improve the environment in Oklahoma.

Moon Influences Human Behavior, Report Suggests

The principles of the moon's influence on human behavior are still being debated and researched by scientists around the world. The report suggests that changes in the moon's phases, particularly in the full and new moon, may affect human emotions and behavior. The implications of these findings are significant for various fields, including psychiatry, psychology, and sociology. The report also highlights the importance of further investigation to fully understand the moon's impact on human cognition and behavior.

OBU Coed Rated 'Phenomenal'

At a recent coed rating, Oklahoma Baptist University (OBU) was rated 'phenomenal' by students and alumni. This rating is based on various factors such as academic excellence, campus life, and overall student satisfaction. OBU continues to excel in these areas, and the university is committed to providing a quality education and enriching campus experiences for its students.

Two OU Students Honored

Joseph R. Smith, Jr. and David W. Johnson were recently honored for their contributions to the University of Oklahoma (OU). Smith, a professor of chemistry, was awarded the OU Distinguished Service Award, recognizing his significant contributions to the university and the broader academic community. Johnson, a graduate student in history, received the OU Graduate Student Award, highlighting his outstanding academic performance and research.

Sauce Adds Gourmet Touch
To Charcoal-Broiled Trout

By NANCY ROSS

DOUGLAS MAGAZINE

AL existing menu may be improved by adding menu items which give a nouvelle or gourmet touch. The following recipe for Charcoal-Broiled Trout with a Sweet White Sauce is one such addition. The sauce may be made a day or two in advance and refrigerated, then reheated for serving.

For the Sweet White Sauce:

1. In a saucepan, combine 1/4 cup unsalted butter, 1/4 cup dry white wine, 1/4 cup chicken broth, and 1/4 cup heavy cream. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and simmer for 10 minutes.

2. In a separate saucepan, heat 1/4 cup unsalted butter over medium heat until it begins to brown. Add 1 large onion, chopped, and sauté until translucent.

3. Add 2 cloves minced garlic and cook for another minute. Stir in the flour, cook for 30 seconds, then add the wine mixture. Bring to a boil and reduce until the sauce thickens.

4. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

For the Charcoal-Broiled Trout:

1. Preheat the grill or broiler.

2. Rinse the trout and pat dry with paper towels. Season with salt and pepper.

3. Place the trout on the grill or broiler rack and grill for about 10 minutes, turning once.

4. Meanwhile, reheat the sauce over low heat. Once the sauce is heated through, serve over the grilled trout.

5. Garnish with fresh herbs and lemon wedges.

A Tip for Serving:

Serve the trout with a side of your favorite vegetables or a green salad. The sweet white sauce pairs well with the smoky flavor of the grilled fish, making it a delicious choice for a special occasion or a tasty weeknight meal.

It's Time For A Fish Fry

During Lent, many families gather for a traditional fish fry. These events are not only a festive way to enjoy seafood but also a time for community building and fundraising. Here are some tips for planning a successful fish fry:

1. Plan Ahead: Make sure you have all the necessary equipment, ingredients, and decorations ready in advance.

2. Choose a Location: Decide whether to hold the fish fry at home, a community center, or another venue.

3. Involve the Community: Reach out to local businesses for sponsorship or donations of food and supplies.

4. Set Up a Raffle: Add some excitement to the event by organizing a raffle with prizes.

5. Serve Variety: Offer different types of fish and other menu items to cater to various tastes.

6. Have Fun: Remember that the goal is to create a fun and enjoyable experience for all attendees.

With proper planning and effort, a fish fry can be a memorable event that brings people together and raises funds for a worthy cause.

First, You Catch The Fish...
Sauce Adds Gourmet Touch To Charcoal-Broiled Trout

By GLADYS PALMER

This is the best way to prepare your fish, the secret is in the sauce. It is made with a combination of fresh lemon juice, garlic, and a touch of red pepper. The result is a flavorful sauce that enhances the flavor of the fish. The recipe is simple and easy to follow. You can use any type of fish for this recipe, but I recommend using a freshwater fish like trout.

A simple trap is to prepare the sauce by boiling the fish in a saucepan with some water. This will help to bring out the flavor of the fish. Then, add the sauce to the fish and let it simmer for a few minutes. You can serve the fish hot or cold, depending on your preference.

At the next dinner party, you can serve this dish to your guests. They will be amazed at how flavorful the fish is. You can also serve this dish as a side dish to accompany your main meal.

It's Time For A Fish Fry

Here are some delicious recipes for a fish fry:

- 1 lb. fresh fish
- 2 tbsp. olive oil
- 1 onion, chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tbsp. chopped fresh thyme
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. black pepper

Preheat oven to 350°F. In a large bowl, combine the fish, oil, onion, garlic, thyme, salt, and pepper. Mix well. Place the fish in a roasting pan and bake for 20 minutes. Serve with a side of tartar sauce.

Stuffed Flounder Delights Guests

Here are some delicious recipes for a fish fry:

- 2 large flounder fillets
- 1/2 cup cooked rice
- 1/2 cup cooked peas
- 1/2 cup cooked carrots
- 1/4 cup sliced green onions
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. black pepper

Preheat oven to 350°F. In a large bowl, combine the rice, peas, carrots, green onions, salt, and pepper. Mix well. Place the rice mixture in the center of each flounder fillet. Roll up and place seam side down in a baking dish. Bake for 20 minutes. Serve with a side of tartar sauce.

Group Names New Officers

The inaugural meeting of the newly formed Royalty Museum was held this week. At the meeting, new officers were elected for the coming year. The newly elected officers are:

- President: John Smith
- Vice President: Jane Doe
- Secretary: Bob Johnson
- Treasurer: Mary Brown

The group plans to hold meetings on the first Monday of every month at the Old Town Hall. The group is open to all members of the community. If you are interested in joining, please contact John Smith at 555-1234.

Suggestions On Safe Use Of Power Mowers Issued

The use of power mowers can be dangerous if not used properly. Here are some tips for safe use:

- Always wear safety glasses when using a power mower.
- Keep children and pets away from the mower when it is in use.
- Make sure the mower is in good working order.
- Never run the mower in a confined area. It is important to make sure there is enough space to move freely.

The most important thing is to always use good judgment when using a power mower. It is important to always be aware of your surroundings and to make sure you are using the mower in a safe manner.
