The Mystery Of Sinatra

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The mystery of Frank Sinatra’s disappearance has finally been solved. The legendary singer was found in his hotel room late last night.

Theapers who were called to the scene reported that Sinatra was found lying in bed with a serious head wound. It is believed that he was attacked by an unidentified assailant.

The investigation is ongoing, and no suspects have been identified at this time.

Sinatra As 'Dirty', Humanitarian

The image contains a newspaper page with multiple articles and photographs. The page includes various stories and advertisements. The articles cover topics such as routine service planning, firemen mourning last of nine bodies found, and a story about annex crash. There is also an advertisement for Pall Mall Gold 100's cigarettes, which claim to be lower in 'tar' than the best-selling filter king. The page appears to be from a traditional newspaper format, with left-aligned text and standard typography.

Lone Star Deannex Opposed by Blacks

A coalition of black leaders yesterday called a citizens meeting in opposition to the proposed building of a Lone Star Elementary School in northeast Oklahoma City, which is in the black district and is opposed by the white community.

The group is demanding that the school be built south of the Oklahoma City school line. Their argument is that the school will be built on the site of a former black school, and they believe this is unfair.

The group is expected to present their case to the Oklahoma City Board of Education at their next meeting.
