Tearful Martha Leaving Husband

'Political Prisoner' Finds Another Phone

BY HELEN THOMAS

Thursday, May 9, 1972 - Martha Mitchell said she is leaving her husband, former Attorney General John N. Mitchell, "with an, emotional goodbye" to "President Nixon's Watergate cronies." Mitchell said she was leaving "after a long, hard fight" and that she had been "arrested" and "harassed" by the FBI. Mitchell said she was "arrested" because she was "a political prisoner" and "can't stand" any more of the lie she has been telling.

Touring America With The Rolling Stones

BY JERRY DANZIG

The Rolling Stones are the hottest band in the world right now. By working the entire West Coast of America, including Las Vegas, San Francisco, and Los Angeles, the Stones have shown they are ready for the world. Their recent album, "Their Satanic Majesties Request," has sold over 3 million copies worldwide and has been reviewed unanimously as the top rock-and-roll album of 1969.

The Stones are known for their intense and electric live performances. Their concerts are a spectacle of light and sound, with the band's famous black suits and sunglasses dominating the stage. Lead vocalist Mick Jagger's charismatic presence and the band's unique sound have earned them a devoted following.

In Las Vegas, the Stones performed at the Conrad Hotel, where they were greeted by a sea of adoring fans. The concert was a huge success, with the audience cheering and jumping along to every song. After the show, the band held a meet-and-greet session, where fans had the opportunity to meet Mick Jagger and other members of the band.

The Stones' upcoming tour includes stops in Chicago, New York, and London, where they will headline the Isle of Wight Festival. Fans around the world are eagerly awaiting their next performance, as the Rolling Stones continue to redefine rock-and-roll for a new generation.

Pamela Says Men Are Cads

by Earl Wilson

NBC's "The Tonight Show" host Johnny Carson has been diagnosed with testicular cancer. The diagnosis was revealed on "The Tonight Show" last night, as Carson was about to go on stage. The show was quickly interrupted, and the audience was informed of the news. Carson's co-hosts, Jay Leno and Jimmy Fallon, were visibly shaken as they announced the news to the millions of viewers watching at home.

Art Carney, the star of "Three's Company," has been ordered to pay over $4 million in back taxes and interest. The IRS uncovered Carney's tax evasion scheme, which included false deductions and understated income. The actor, who has been vocal about the high cost of living in New York City, was hit with a massive tax bill.

JANET JACKSON

The pop star is reportedly dating an Olympic gold medalist. Janet Jackson was spotted holding hands with a mystery man who has been identified as Michael Phelps. The two have been seen together on several occasions, and sources say they are exclusive. Jackson and Phelps have been known to attend a few concerts together, and they have been seen hugging and kissing in public.

THE NFL

The New England Patriots have signed free agent wide receiver Terrence Austin. Austin, who played for the Cleveland Browns and the San Francisco 49ers, has been a consistent performer throughout his career. He is expected to contribute to the Patriots' offense, giving them an extra weapon in the passing game.

Use Reinforcement to Help Children Learn

By Joseph and Les Bird

Reinforcement is the use of rewards to encourage desirable behavior. It's a powerful tool for shaping children's behavior and fostering positive outcomes. In this article, we'll explore the principles of reinforcement and provide practical strategies for parents to enhance their children's learning and development.

Power to the Parents—5

As a child grows, it's important to understand the value of reinforcement in shaping their behavior. Positive reinforcement, specifically, involves rewarding desirable behaviors to encourage their repetition. This technique can be highly effective in motivating children to engage in tasks or activities they might otherwise resist.

Whites Will Listen, Learn

Norman—White parents are invited to a special event. Norman's Department of Health is hosting a workshop on the importance of understanding and communicating with white parents. This workshop aims to improve the relationship between white parents and educators, fostering an environment of trust and collaboration.

PARALYZED PILOT LANDS

Friends ‘Talk’ Him Down To Safety

Pat Earns His Wings

By EDO KIMMEL

His friends call him “the greatest pilot that ever lived.”

Monday night he made his last flight to Oklahoma City, landing at Oklahoma City Municipal Airport.

He had a close shave, but he is all right.

Pat is the name of the pilot who landed safely after a close call.

FBI and DEA officials have been following the movements of the pilot, who is suspected of involvement in a significant drug trafficking operation.

Pat landed safely at the airport and was met by agents who searched him and seized evidence.

FBI and DEA officials are now investigating the case, which may involve international drug networks.

In this case, the pilot landed safely despite the presence of law enforcement officers.

The incident highlights the importance of vigilance in the fight against drug trafficking.
