Capitol Hill Houses Called ‘Rundown’

By ENNIS KEEDING

Usually so severe has been taken in a 12-year-old rep-port indicating that the dwelling is of about 6,000 inhabitants in the Capitol Hill area of Oklahoma City. The report indicates that the building is in a “run-down” condition. The report was made by Ennis Keeding, who is responsible for the investigation of the condition of the area. The report was presented to the Oklahoma City City Planning Commission during a meeting on Tuesday.

The report, which was made by Ennis Keeding, is expected to be presented to the Oklahoma City Council at its next meeting. The report indicates that the building is in a state of disrepair and that repairs are necessary to bring it up to code. The report also states that the building is being used as a place of residence for people who are unable to afford better housing.

The report calls for the city to take action to repair the building and to ensure that it is safe for those who live there. The report also suggests that the city should consider the possibility of demolishing the building if repairs are not possible.

The report is expected to be discussed at a future meeting of the Oklahoma City Planning Commission.

School Transfers OK’d

By ROBERT S. TRANDY

Following an open meeting on Monday night, the Okla-lahoma Board of Education voted to approve all school transfers that have been requested since the last meeting. The action was taken after the board was informed that the current policy is not in line with the state’s educational standards. The board also noted that the current policy does not align with the state’s educational goals.

The board was also told that the current policy is not aligned with the state’s educational goals.

The Pride And Glory Of The U.S.

The United States is a nation of proud and free people. Our history is one of progress and democracy. We have created a society that is open to all, where freedom of speech and the press are protected.

The people of the United States are united in their belief in the principles of freedom and democracy. They have fought for these principles and have built a nation that is a beacon of hope for the world.

The United States is a land of opportunity. It is a place where anyone can start with nothing and build a better life for themselves and their families.

We must continue to work together to ensure that our nation remains strong and free. We must protect our democracy and our way of life. We must stand together as one people.

The People's Voice

Dear Editor,

I write to you today to express my concern about the direction of our country. We are facing a crisis of leadership and a lack of vision.

Our leaders are divided, and our country is left without a clear path forward. We need strong leadership that can unite us and make tough decisions.

We need leaders who are committed to the ideals of freedom and democracy. We need leaders who are willing to work together to find solutions to our problems.

Let us stand together as one people, and work to build a better future for ourselves and our children.

Sincerely,

War Veteran Joins Race
Robert R. Sanders, head of a political group in Oklahoma City, yesterday announced his candidacy for the office of United States Senate.

Sanders said he would run as a Democrat and that he would be the first black candidate for the Senate in Oklahoma history.

"I am running because I believe that the needs of the state of Oklahoma can best be served by a person who has lived and worked in the state," Sanders said.

Sanders, a native of Oklahoma City, is a former state senator and a member of the Oklahoma Democratic Party.

He announced his candidacy at a press conference in Oklahoma City, where he was joined by state Senator Edward Cox, who is also running for the Senate.

"I am confident that Robert Sanders can win," Cox said.

"He has the experience and the qualifications to be a good Senate candidate."
