State's 'Gravy Train' Ticket Voided

By HOWARD DAVIS

State college and university administrators are facing a serious problem as the cost of education continues to rise. The state institutions have been criticized for their high tuition rates, and many are calling for a reform of the system. The state legislature is considering a bill that would cap tuition increases at 3% per year, but it is uncertain whether the bill will pass. The chancellor of the state university system said, "We need to find a way to make higher education more affordable for our students." The state institutions have been accused of "gouging" students, and there is a growing movement to demand more transparency in the budgeting process.

Nixon Vows Sensing Hold

Ticket

His First Concern

Presenting a three-part plan to the nation, President Nixon said, "I am determined to hold the line on spending and to make sure that the budget is balanced. I will be asking Congress to cut back on unnecessary programs and to find ways to reduce the cost of entitlements. My first priority is to balance the budget and to get our fiscal house in order." The president's plan includes cuts to Medicare, Medicaid, and other programs, as well as a freeze on federal salaries and a freeze on federal hiring. Nixon's plan has been met with mixed reactions, with some Republicans supporting him and others calling it "too extreme." The White House has promised to work with Congress to find a bipartisan solution.

Liberation Forms

Party's For Parties

A former Reaganite, James B. Tower, and a former Democrat, Bob Dole, have formed a new political party that they call the "American Renewal Party." The party's platform includes a call for term limits, campaign finance reform, and a balanced budget amendment. Tower said, "We want to give the American people a choice. We believe that the two-party system is broken, and we need a new political force to compete with the Democrats and Republicans." Dole added, "We want to give the people a voice in their government. We believe that the old system is no longer working, and we need a new way forward." The party is expected to make its debut in the 1980 presidential election.

Inside News

Landry To Cell Plays

The Daily Oklahoman

Landry, the popular state senator, is facing renewed accusations of ethics violations. Landry, a Democrat, has been accused of using state resources for personal gain, including using state staff to work on his campaign. Landry's office has denied the accusations, but the Oklahoma Ethics Commission is currently investigating the matter. Landry said, "I am innocent of these charges, and I will fight to clear my name." The ethics commission is expected to make a decision in the coming weeks.

Korean Controverted

The News Oklahoman

A report from South Korea has raised questions about the U.S. military's presence in the country. According to the report, a number of U.S. soldiers have been involved in incidents involving Koreans, including reports of sexual harassment and assaults. The Pentagon has denied the allegations, but the situation remains tense. The U.S. government has been increasing its military presence in South Korea in response to North Korea's nuclear program.

Burglars Bold

The Tulsa World

A group of burglars is on the loose in Tulsa, and authorities are urging residents to be vigilant. The burglars have been targeting homes in the city's growing middle-class neighborhoods, breaking in through windows and stealing jewelry and electronics. Residents are encouraged to lock their doors and windows and to install surveillance cameras.

Steel Hat Purpose

The Daily Oklahoman

A group of steelworkers is planning a protest to demand better pay and benefits. The steelworkers have been working for years for a raise, but they have not received one. The protest is expected to take place outside the steel mill, and the union has called for a general strike if the demands are not met. The steel company said, "We are working hard to make sure that our employees are fairly compensated for their work."

Sky's Jupiter, King Of Gods, Appropriately Named

By MARSHALL BROOKS

Jupiter, the giant planet of the Solar System, is named after the mythological king of the gods. His name is associated with the golden images of Jupiter located in many temples of ancient Greece and Rome. The ancient Romans believed that the king of goddesses was the patron of the state, and that his political influence was exercised through Emissaries of Apollo. The word Jupiter is derived from the Latin name for the planet, Jupitae. It is also the name of the king of gods, who was worshiped as the god of heaven and the protector of the Roman state. The name Jupiter is also associated with the king of the gods in Greek mythology, who was the patron of the state and the protector of the city. The word Jupiter is also associated with the king of the gods in Greek mythology, who was the patron of the state and the protector of the city.

George Sarno, Ward 1

I am most interested in developing a regional park and the need for a new park. I have been told that there is a strong demand from the public for a new park. The current park is not adequate. For 1980, we need to ensure that we have the necessary resources to meet the needs of the community.

Eugene Matthews, Ward 2

We need to focus on the development of small parks within the city. I believe that this will provide the best solution for our needs. We also need to consider the impact of increased urbanization on our parks.

Ken Boyer, Ward 3

My first goal as a councilor will be to increase the amount of green space in the city. I believe that this will be beneficial for the community and will help to improve the quality of life for all residents.

Delbert Burnett, Ward 7

I believe that it is important to work with the police department to improve the safety of our neighborhoods. We need to ensure that we have the resources to support this effort.

Bill Bishop, Ward 4

I believe that it is important to support the city's parks and recreational facilities. I believe that this will help to improve the quality of life for all residents.

John M. Smith, Ward 5

I believe that the city needs to focus on the development of a new park. I believe that this will provide the best solution for our needs.

Mayor Proctor Lasting

We need to ensure that we have the necessary resources to support the development of a new park. I believe that this will be beneficial for the community and will help to improve the quality of life for all residents.

Plan Now For Fall Plants

The fall is an excellent time to consider removing unwanted plants and preparing spring beds for new ones. Begin by raking leaves. Remove dead leaves, twigs and branches from lawns and flower beds. Use a leaf blower to remove leaves from paved areas.

Many trees and shrubs do not like to be planted in the fall with厕所为秋假状态。因此，应根据植物种类和具体环境选择最佳种植时间。避免在温暖但有可能会受到低温影响的季节进行种植。温度适宜时才适合植物的正常生长。

Plan Now For Fall Plants

Volunteers and church groups often need ideas and materials for fall planting projects. Here are some tips and suggestions to help:

1. Plan your garden in advance. Consider the types of plants you want to grow and the space they will need.
2. Prepare your soil. Amend it with compost or fertilizer to improve drainage and nutrients.
3. Choose plants that are hardy in your area. Consult a local nursery or garden center for recommendations.
4. Plant in the fall when the weather is cooler and the soil is still warm but not too wet or dry.
5. Space plants properly to allow for growth and to avoid overcrowding.
6. Water regularly to help the plants establish roots.

Eye On The Garden

With the harvest season in full swing, many gardeners are focusing on preserving their bounty. One popular method is freezing, which can help extend the shelf life of fruits, vegetables, and herbs. Here are some tips for freezing garden produce:

1. Choose ripe, healthy produce. Overripe fruits and vegetables can become mushy during the freezing process.
2. Clean the produce thoroughly. Wash in cold water and pat dry with a clean towel.
3. Cut or chop the produce into uniform pieces to ensure even freezing.
4. Blanch the produce for 1 to 3 minutes to stop the enzymes and preserve color.
5. Cool the blanched produce in cold water before freezing.
6. Package in freezer bags or containers, leaving some headspace for expansion.
7. Label the packages with the date and contents.
8. Freeze until solid, then store in the freezer for up to 12 months.
