Granite Inmates Stage Work Stoppage

By JOHN L. LONG

GRANITE — More than 60 Oklahoma State Penitentiary inmates refused to work Tuesday afternoon.

The disturbance started at 3 o'clock after inmates were told to gather outside the laundry. Some of the inmates were seen yelling and throwing about the yard.

Several of the inmates were located in and around the company plant and company residence and the company lost at least $1,000 in labor and equipment.

The stoppage is being called a strike by the company and the inmates are demanding better working conditions at the plant.

A further meeting was called for later Tuesday night.

The company said the stoppage was caused by the men's dissatisfaction with the wage and working conditions at the Granite laundry. The company said the stoppage was being called a strike by the company and the inmates are demanding better working conditions at the plant.
