TV Role Turns Actor Into Indian Rights Advocate

By J. BROOKS

Michael Dene, a former actor who appeared in several films and television shows, has become an advocate for Indian rights. The 40-year-old actor, who is of Cherokee descent, says he was drawn to the issue after meeting with several tribal leaders.

Publicity for the movie "The Last of the Mohicans" has led to an increase in interest in Indian affairs. Dene, who played the role of Chingachgook in the film, says he hopes to use his celebrity status to raise awareness about Indian issues.

South Vietnamese Democracy

The first Church of Christ, Scientist, in the South Vietnamese capital, is the first Christian church to open in Saigon. It was dedicated on Sunday morning, with a service that lasted for more than two hours. The church is expected to be a focal point forVN Americans, who have been living in the city for several years. The church was founded by the Rev. Dr. Mary Baker Eddy, who is credited with the invention of Christian Science. The service included music, readings, and a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Eddy. The church is located in a prominent building, which was formerly the headquarters of the French colonial administration. The church is open to all faiths and is free to attend.

Signs Of Changing Times

The United States is becoming a country of diversity, with people from all over the world immigrating to the United States. The changing demographics are reflected in the growing number of minority-owned businesses. The Hispanic community is expanding rapidly, and Hispanic-owned businesses are playing a significant role in the local economy. The Hispanic community is a vital part of the community, and their success is a testament to their hard work and dedication. The Hispanic community is working hard to build a better future for their children, and their success is inspiring others to follow their lead. The Hispanic community is an important part of the community, and their contributions are invaluable.

Upi Poll Results

Washington, D.C. - The latest Upi poll shows that a majority of Americans approve of President Nixon's handling of the Vietnam War. The poll, conducted by the Upi, shows that 56 percent of Americans approve of Nixon's policies, while 37 percent disapprove. The poll results are a marked improvement over the previous poll, which showed that only 45 percent of Americans approved of Nixon's policies. The poll results are likely to have a significant impact on the election. Nixon is currently in the lead, with 51 percent of the vote, while his opponent, George McGovern, has 39 percent of the vote. The poll results are a positive sign for Nixon, and he is likely to use them to bolster his campaign.

Gun Guards Pride

A group of armed guards is protecting the newly opened "Pride" newspaper in New York. The newspaper is a new addition to the city's media landscape, and it is already making waves. The guards are a symbol of the newspaper's commitment to providing quality news and informing the public. The guards are also a welcome addition to the city, as they are helping to make the newspaper safer and more accessible to all.

Bear Attacks Park Hikers

A bear has been spotted in a park near the city. The bear is causing a stir, and park officials are on high alert. The bear is a threat to the safety of visitors, and park officials are working to keep the bear away from the public. The bear is currently in the park, and it is likely that it will continue to roam the park for a few days. The bear is a symbol of the city's wildlife, and it is a reminder of the importance of protecting the environment. The bear is a welcome addition to the city, and it is likely to continue to make appearances in the park.
