Editor Urges Readers Not To Vote

Don Wilson has given you honesty and fairness in the county assessor's office.

Now it's your decision.

You said you wanted a fair, honest county assessor... you have one.

You said you wanted all property taxed fairly... it is now.

You said you were tired of privileged few getting special tax breaks... that has stopped.

You said you didn't mind paying a fair share as long as everybody else pays their fair share, too... come check the records. That's the way it works today.

You said you wanted an assessor who would follow the law, whether or not he agreed with it... you haven't been disappointed.

You wanted an assessor who would do the job without fear or favor. That's the way the office is being run.

Don Wilson kept his end of the bargain and will continue to do so. He deeply appreciates your help and support.

Now it's up to you to decide whether the county assessor's office continues to be run with fairness and honesty... Tuesday, in the voting booth.

GOP Convention Boring Even Before It Starts

By RALPH PRENTICE

The Republican Convention will be a dull affair. It will lack the excitement and drama of previous conventions. The candidates are not well known, and the issues are unexciting. The delegates will be focused on their own interests rather than the larger issues facing the country. This will be a convention where the candidates will be more interested in their own careers than in the future of the party. The convention will be a disappointment for those who were hoping for a more exciting event.

Protest Camp Grows

By SUSAN J. SMITH

As the Republican Convention approaches, the protest camp grows larger. The delegates are not happy with the candidates and are demanding change. They want a convention that will address the issues facing the country. The protesters are well organized and are using social media to spread their message. They have even managed to get a few celebrities to support their cause. The convention will be a test of the Republicans' ability to appeal to a wider audience.

Party Spirit Alive And Well

By PHILIP WHITE

The Republican Party is alive and well. Despite the recent scandals, the party remains popular with the voters. The delegates are excited about the upcoming convention and are looking forward to selecting the party's nominee. The party is focused on the issues that are important to the voters, and the candidates are working hard to win their support. The convention will be a success for the Republicans, and they will be able to nominate a candidate who will win the election.

Friday

Wednesday Night

The festivals are beginning to wind down now, as we are approaching the July 4th holiday. The usual suspects are the four events that CHS sponsors for your evening viewing, but there is another special attraction in the form of the annual Independence Day celebration. There are days of discovery coming up, including the Independence Day Parade, which will feature a variety of floats and bands. The main event will be the fireworks display, which is always a treat. There will also be a number of food vendors and carnival games available for everyone to enjoy.

Friday Night

The exhibits are open to the public through May 10. Hours are 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Saturday. The museum is located at 1200 W. South Street, Norman.

NEW YORK (UPI) - Dick Butkus, a new young face in the ranks of NBC's "Monday Night Football" announcers this season, is already making a name for himself. Butkus has been a star on the gridiron, and is now a new addition to the broadcast booth. His voice is heard on Monday Night Football, and has become a familiar sound to many fans. Butkus brought his knowledge of the game to the broadcast booth, and has become a popular addition to the NBC team. His name is now associated with the game, and he continues to make an impact on the field and in the broadcast booth.

Ask Them Yourself

FOR JOHN W. GARDNER, chairman of Common Cause

I understand you're against Congress' "seniority system." Why not? Bennett, Tennessee.

I am a member of Common Cause and I am not satisfied with the way Congress operates. The system puts too much power in the hands of a few people and too little in the hands of the people. It is a system that is easy to manipulate and hard to change. If you want to change Congress, you must change the system. The only way to do that is to elect new members who will support a constitutional amendment to change the system.

22 PIECE ORNAMENT KIT

This week, Women's Editor Rosalyn Abrovitz gives some pointers in picking back-to-school wardrobes for girls, because: "I don't think it's enough just to show pretty pictures of little girls in fashionable dresses and say, 'Here, Mom, buy this, buy that.' After all, there is such a thing as a family budget! The trick is to keep little Nancy's wardrobe fresh and varied—and not go bankrupt doing it!"

I'm Happily Married!
(And That's the Problem)
By Sloan Wilson

When I was 38, my wife and I moved to a small town in the midwest. I was working as a writer, she was a teacher. We were happy, but I often felt a sense of unease. In my mind, I knew that my life was missing something. I had a successful career, a loving wife, but I couldn't shake the feeling that there was more to life than what I was experiencing.

One day, I received a letter from a friend who had moved to the city. He told me about a small town where he had found a sense of community and fulfillment. I was intrigued and decided to visit.

When I arrived, I was taken aback by the town's charm. The people were friendly, the streets were clean, and the houses were well-maintained. I knew I had to stay longer than I had planned.

During my visit, I met a woman named Elizabeth. She was a local artist and we hit it off immediately. We spent long evenings talking about our passions and dreams. She showed me the town's hidden gems, and we would often sit by the town's fountain, watching the world go by.

I realized that I had found what I was looking for. Elizabeth was the missing piece of my life. We started dating, and eventually, I moved to the town to be with her.

Now, years later, I can look back and see how much I have grown. I have found my happiness, and I wouldn't trade it for anything. I'm grateful for the journey and the experiences that led me to where I am today.
An Easy Tuna Salad With a Gourmet Taste

This week, Food Editor Marilyn Hansen suggests a special kind of tuna salad dressing. "I really think it's a shame people always treat tuna salad in the same old way. Actually, tuna salad is served in some of France's best three-star restaurants. This Tuna Salad Nicoise is a gourmet-style recipe that's simplicity itself. Nicole now (of the city of Nice) likes to serve this salad at home as either a lunch or as a light supper.

Fruit-Fresh introduces the peach that doesn't turn brown.

I was a real "lulu" before I lost 103 pounds.

By Lou DiPelle - as told to Ruth Le McCarthy

I would have never been on broadcast, as two Ajills with a cup of coffee were plenty to take me. My first thought was to have salad again. I had eaten a hot dog before the show and I had no desire for meat. I had also eaten a sandwich and a salad. Desserts meant more Ajills and coffee, followed by steak, an uncooked steak on ice, or tea. These were days more centered around me. I tell you, when I think of that salad, I really help me get back on course. Good thing, too, with 300 pounds to lose.

But let me say this: when you're as fat as I was on the Ajills plan several years ago, I decided to start over with a whole new outlook. You would have a drink with my husband or a couple of friends, we'd sit on ice, put up, and even back to being hanging on Mondays.

I also started exercising to lose up to 50 pounds. Every previous time I was over 300 pounds, I would drop about 20 pounds in a week. And I was always having an ice cream. I tried thinking for myself, but I have to admit, I do feel better and more satisfied.

My husband, of course, started bringing and bringing and eating like everyone. You see, I was a totally different woman. Two years ago, when I thought about eating, I didn't notice the difference. But now when I eat, I feel like a whole new person. I can't wait to see how the Ajills plan works. It's really close.
The View from Munich: How the TV Experts Size Up This Olympics

By Allan Frank

"As each Olympiad comes along, I think we're going to see other nations shipping away at the huge numbers of gold medals we used to win. They're getting better. We're not as fast as we used to be. We're not. But these other nations are catching up. They're catching up. And I think one of the reasons is that they're doing something we've done in America nothing again.

MUNICH, West Germany — swimming, we've got Mark Spitz. Jim McKay is saying, "He's the kid who went to Mexico announcing he was going to win, five or six gold medals—this cocky kid you ever see? PLAYS: For only $1 you get the first month of protection for your entire family!

This plan pays so much and the $1 offer is so good, you probably have some questions — or even some doubts. We've got all the answers (including the minor limitations) down right here... in black and white... for Family Weekly readers so you won't miss the Enrollment Deadline for the Cash/Plus Plan. Comparison shows Cash/Plus helps answer today's soaring jump in hospital charges, now up to $11.66 a day national average with still worse to come.

Ordinary hospitalization insurance alone is just not enough, now when your family is hit with a hospital stay. You need to supplement it with a hospital income plan that pays enough extra cash — cash that's paid in addition to any other money and insurance benefits you may have. Otherwise you could end up draining your life savings, children's college fund, etc. Low-cost Cash/Plus helps you avoid this need. It pays more because it covers more. Helps out for both sickness and accident, and for the thousands costs of Intensive Care and convalescent facilities.

Your family is safer and so are your hard-earned savings. And now it's easy to get Cash/Plus. Just fill out the Enrollment Form (right in this booklet) and mail it with your $1 by August 29, 1972. Better yet, do it today!

Under this Guarantee, you pay nothing. Your policy is yours for 30 days. If you are not satisfied, simply return policy to the company within 30 days for a full refund of your $1. That's our guarantee. It's 100% completely risk free — you lose nothing.

How to use All Tax-Free!

Now — for only $1 — regardless of your age, your occupation or size of your family you get your first month's protection.

But you must reply before midnight August 29th.

During this Limited Enrollment Period you the readers of Family Weekly can avoid yourself out of expense insurance of your family simply by filling out and submitting the Enrollment Form on the back cover of this booklet with only $1. No premium increase with age. Your low renewal premium rate does not increase as you pass from one age bracket to another because Cash/Plus is a level premium plan. You always pay the renewal rate for the age at which you enrol the plan.

PLUS the Winter of 1972/73.

Your Guaranteed Renewability

Once issued to your family, your Cash/Plus Plan can never be cancelled by the company because of any claim or the number of claims you make. Your policy is guaranteed by your life and the name for the lifetime at the same rate that was charged at the time you enrol. Certain benefits change at age 65 or after eligibility for Medicare.

And the cost of your life is you can be sure of getting tax-free when cash paid directly to you — not to the doctor or hospital unless you tell us to — which is why you (or any insured family members) are satisfied in the hospital for covered illnesses or injury — paid from the very first day up to 25 months for each and every benefit period.
