GOP Paying High Price For Sammy

By MAURICE COPPODAR

MANNY BEAGLE (UPI) - In an unusual move, a prominent Washington Democrat has demanded that the Republican Party pay a $10,000 fine for its role in the Sammy scandal.

The Democrat, who has not been identified, said the party was responsible for the Sammy scandal because it was responsible for bringing Sammy to the attention of the public.

The Democrat added that Sammy had been a political operative who had been active in Democratic politics for many years.

The party, he said, had failed to take action against Sammy, who had been a member of the party for 20 years.

The Democrat said the party should have taken action against Sammy when he was first discovered.

“Sammy was a political operative who had been active in Democratic politics for many years,” the Democrat said. “The party should have taken action against him when he was first discovered.”
