The Oklahoma Journal

Editor's Note:

ONCE, we thought there were too many New York papers, but now there are so many in the same field that it is difficult to keep up with them all. We have had to reduce the space we allocate to news from New York, but we will continue to follow the developments there as closely as possible.

POLLUTION: In art, it is said to be ‘in the eye of the beholder.’ In the case of the Big D. construction project, it is in the eye of the beholder whether they are making progress or not. However, the city of Oklahoma City has certainly made progress in reducing pollution.

THE 10 CENTS:

The 10-cent fare has been eliminated from the Oklahoma City Transit System after a year of operation. The fare has been reduced to 5 cents.

GOOD MOON:

The moon is full today, which means that the night sky will provide a beautiful view of the stars. It is a good time to go outside and enjoy the beauty of nature.

Que Son Recaptured

QUE SON, Mexico—Young and innocent, the young Que Son child was captured in the recent border battle between the United States and Mexico. The young Que Son child was captured by the Mexican police and later released.
