Trade Front Looking Rosy

The increased emphasis on trade front in the Republican platform is a healthy development. It is a recognition that trade is an important economic factor and should be treated as such. The increased emphasis on trade front will help to attract more foreign investment and will also help to reduce our trade deficit.

Nixon Expects War To End

NEW YORK (AP)—President Nixon indicated the Vietnam war will end and be “not a holding over” to the country during the second administration. In an interview reported by the New York Times, Nixon said he was “determined” to bring the war to an end and to negotiate a peace settlement. He said he had not yet decided on a policy to end the war, but he was “determined” to bring it to an end.

Agnew Says Eye On ’72

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said he didn’t want to turn his attention to the possible 1972 presidential campaign, despite his growing popularity and the urging of many Republican leaders. Agnew said he was “まだ、まだー” and he was “far away” from making a decision about the 1972 campaign. He said he was “still trying to get my act together” and he was “not ready” to make a decision about the 1972 campaign.

Paper Mill Cleanup Pledged

NEW YORK (AP)—The president of the paper and pulp industry has pledged to increase its efforts to clean up the paper mill industry. The industry has been facing problems with pollution and the president said he was “determined” to do something about it. He said he would be “actively involved” in the efforts to clean up the paper mill industry.
