'Riding The Lightning'

The climate is strange these days. We are told that there is a new kind of muckety-muck, the 'new听说者' who care for nothing but their own selfish goals. They are said to have no scruples, no sense of honor. They are said to be the kind who will do anything, no matter how disgraceful, to get ahead.

There is no question that these newsopesters exist. In my own experience, I have come across many who fit this description. They are everywhere, from the highest levels of government to the lowest rungs of society. They are the ones who are responsible for the corruption and decay that we see all around us.

But I have a feeling that things are about to change. I see a new generation rising up, a generation that is not afraid to stand up for what is right. I see a generation that will not tolerate corruption and deceit. I see a generation that will fight for justice and fairness.

The time is right for this new generation to take the lead. It is time for them to show the world that there is a better way. It is time for them to show that the old ways of doing things are not enough anymore.

The Ratings

OU gets a narrow lead over the Tigers, who fell to second place in the standings. The game was a tense struggle, with both teams showcasing their skills. The Tigers' quarterback managed to get the ball to his wide receiver, but his throw was intercepted by the opposing team's defensive back. This gave the Tigers' defense an opportunity to put pressure on the quarterback, limiting his options and ultimately resulting in their loss.

Jones Named Top Lineman

Rustler's flyer off the field has raised concerns among his teammates. The coach, however, remains confident in his skills and has defended him, stating that it's not the first time the athlete has faced criticism. The coach has emphasized the need for the team to support each other through these challenges.

A Busy One
At O-State

By GENE GLENFIRE

All you could hear was the clanging of a movie camera coming up out of the darkness. The noise was coming from the offices of the Oklahoma State University student newspaper, The Oklahoma State Daily. The newspaper is printed on a large press that is located in a building that looks like a Christmas tree. At 6 p.m., the newsroom is a bustling hive of activity. The students are working on their stories, editing their articles, and laying out the pages for the next day's edition.

The newspaper was founded in 1914 and is the oldest student newspaper in the country. It has a circulation of around 20,000 and is distributed throughout the state of Oklahoma.

The newspaper is published daily, and it covers a wide range of topics, including state and national news, sports, entertainment, and campus events.

The newspaper is owned and operated by the students of Oklahoma State University. It is edited by a faculty advisor, and the students are responsible for all aspects of the newspaper, from writing and editing to designing and printing.

The newspaper is a valuable resource for the students of Oklahoma State University. It provides them with a platform to express their views and to stay informed about the world around them.
Sooner Face Tougher Foe
No Rout This Time?

By TONI MARCHETT
EXECUTIVE SPORTS EDITOR

Oklahoma's second opponent for the 1972 football season is not so much a new face on the scene as a tough one, as the Sooners face a versatile and well-coached team in Arizona State.

The Sooners held Arizona State scoreless for the first three quarters of last year's game, but the Sun Devils came back to win 17-14.

This year's game is expected to be even closer, with both teams holding their own in the early part of the season.

Arizona State expects to have their star quarterback, Tom Jones, back in the lineup after missing most of last year due to injury.

The Sooners, on the other hand, will have to deal with the potent offense of Arizona State, which is led by running back John Cottrell and wide receiver Ken Sonntag.

No rout this time, the Sooners hope to come out on top in this battle of two strong college football programs.

O-State Seeks Second Win At Arkansas

Depth A Big Plus For Cowboys

By DOYLE MAY
Sports Editor

Oklahoma State is looking to build on their impressive performance in their first game against Arkansas State last week. The Cowboys are expected to have a deeper and more experienced roster this week.

The Cowboys have a strong line-up in the backfield, led by tailback Darrel Price and tight end Tommy Farrow. The offensive line, led by center Tom Catterson, is also expected to perform well.

Coach Jerry Glanville has been working hard with his team in preparation for this game, and the Cowboys are confident in their ability to come out on top.

The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams battling for the upper hand. The Cowboys are looking to build on their season-high nine-game winning streak and are ready to face the challenge.

Porkers’ Reavis Ready For OSU

This is a great time in the history of the Oklahoma State University football program. The Cowboys are in the thick of the race for the Big 8 championship, and they are looking to make a statement against their rival, the Arkansas Razorbacks.

The Cowboys’ defense has been a force to be reckoned with, led by the strong performance of the linebacking corps. The offense, under the guidance of talented running backs, has been putting up big numbers on the scoreboard.

The Cowboys’ attack has forced some key turnovers, which has been crucial in their success. They have also been able to capitalize on their opponents’ mistakes.

The Cowboys’ defense has also been a key component in their success. They have been able to shut down the Arkansas offense, forcing them into turnovers and limiting their scoring opportunities.

This game against Arkansas is a crucial one for the Cowboys. A win would solidify their position in the Big 8 race and give them a boost of confidence headed into their next game.

Gibson Concerned Over Tulsa's Start

TULSA — before the sea-son, Bob Gibson, the left-hander for the St. Louis Cardinals, was asked how many times his name would be mentioned in the papers during the season. The answer was a confident "50 times a day." Now, with the season over for the Cardinals, the name of the man who has been their ace pitcher for the past several seasons has not been mentioned once. Gibson, who was signed to a $75,000 contract last winter, has been a disappointment to the team, and his fans. The team has struggled all season, and Gibson's performance has been below expectations. The Cards, who were favorites to win the National League west, have finished in fifth place with a record of 75-87. Gibson's struggles have been a major factor in the team's poor performance. He has struggled with his control, and his fastball has not been as effective as in previous years.
Kerry Says Offense 'Was Made For Me'

By JIM DURAND

OU eyes must be on starting quarterback Kerry Jackson now that the team's leading rusher, the versatile Stan Thomas, is not around to provide balance to a balanced attack. Jackson, a former quarterback at Oklahoma High School, is expected to start in Thomas' place. "I think it's a good thing," Jackson said. "I think it's a good thing for me." Jackson is the first quarterback to start in almost everything OU fans, and the balance is good. It helps take the pressure off the defense, just as much as it helps the offense. Jackson said he was nervous before the game, but he knew what he was doing. He was ready to play. OU fans, on the other hand, were not ready to give Jackson credit. "I don't know if it's because he's not as big as Stan," Jackson said. "But I think he's going to do a good job." Jackson said he was nervous before the game, but he knew what he was doing. He was ready to play. OU fans, on the other hand, were not ready to give Jackson credit. "I don't know if it's because he's not as big as Stan," Jackson said. For Central State

By CHEICK BUSHY

Central's Stewart is in a must-win situation today, for the Sooners are on the ropes. The Sooners, once undefeated, have lost two of their last three games. Stewart, in his last two games against the Sooners, has scored 20 points. The Sooners need to win this game to remain in contention for the Big Eight title. Stewart is key to Central's hopes of upsetting the Sooners.

Morton's No. 1 Again For Dallas

"I'm going to Texas," said Morton. He's been suffering from a chronic case of homesickness. "I'm going to Texas," he said again. "I'm going to Texas," he said once more. "I'm going to Texas," he said for the fourth time. "I'm going to Texas," he said, tears streaming down his face. "I'm going to Texas," he said, sobbing. "I'm going to Texas," he said, weeping. "I'm going to Texas," he said, collapsing on the ground.

Grant Coach Gets Honor

Last week's Cune (Spesset) senior football team honored Charles Carpenter, a member of the 1916 touring team that played against World War I, with a plaque and a place in the school's Hall of Fame. Carpenter had been a star player for the school and had been a key figure in the team's success.

Mid-State Won't Be Two-Sided

There isn't going to be the usual big gap between Mid-State and the rest of the league. The Bluejays are coming off a 1-7 season, which was a major improvement from the 0-8 season the year before. The team is hoping to continue its improvement and make the playoffs this year.
